AN ACT to amend the general municipal law, in relation to local civil administrative enforcement procedures in the town of Huntington and other municipalities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 380 of the general municipal law is amended by adding a new subdivision 3 to read as follows:

3. The town of Huntington may adopt a local law establishing an administrative adjudication hearing procedure under the provisions of this article for all code and ordinance violations relating to conditions which constitute a threat or danger to the public health, safety or welfare, provided, however, that such administrative adjudication hearing procedure shall not apply to violations of the building code of the town of Huntington.

§ 2. Subdivision a of section 381 of the general municipal law, as added by chapter 382 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

a. The head of the bureau shall be the director who shall be the chief administrative law judge of the bureau and shall have all the powers of an administrative law judge pursuant to this section. The director shall be appointed by the ~~[mayor of such city]~~ chief executive officer of the municipality, for a term of five years with the advice and consent of the ~~[common or municipal council]~~ legislative body of such municipality. The director shall be removable only for neglect of duty or misfeasance in office after notice and an opportunity for a hearing. Once appointed and confirmed, the director shall serve until his or her term expires and until his or her successor has been appointed and confirmed. The

1 director shall devote his or her entire work time to the duties of the 2 office.

3 § 3. Subdivision f of section 381 of the general municipal law, as 4 added by chapter 382 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

5 f. The director shall collect, compile, and publish statistics and 6 other data with respect to the operations and duties of the bureau and 7 submit annually to the [~~mayer, the city council~~] the chief executive 8 officer of the municipality, the legislative body of such municipality, 9 and the public a report on such operations including but not limited to,
10 the number of hearings initiated, the number of decisions rendered, the 11 number of partial or total reversals by the appeals panel, the number of 12 proceedings pending, and on any recommendations of the bureau of statu-13 tory or regulatory amendments.

14 § 4. Subdivision g of section 385 of the general municipal law, as 15 added by chapter 382 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

16 g. Except as otherwise provided in this subdivision no appeal of a 17 decision, determination or order of an administrative law judge imposing 18 civil penalties shall be decided unless such civil penalties are paid or 19 a cash or recognized surety company bond shall have been posted in the 20 full amount of such civil penalties. No such payment or posting of such 21 bond shall be required where the respondent is the holder of a current 22 license or permit for the operation of a business issued by an agency or 23 officer of such [~~city~~] municipality. Upon a showing of undue hardship 24 or where justice may require, the administrative law judge who decided 25 the case or appellate panel to which the appeal is assigned may order 26 that the appeal shall be decided without requiring such payment or post-27 ing of such bond.

28 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
