AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to the posting of security by a person against whom certain criminal charges are pending

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph a and subparagraph 1 of paragraph b of subdivision 6 of section 373 of the agriculture and markets law, as amended by chapter 531 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

a. If any animal is seized and impounded pursuant to the provisions of 5 this section, section three hundred fifty-three-d [of this article] or 6 [section] three hundred seventy-five of this article for any violation 7 of this article, [upon arraignment of charges, or within a reasonable time thereafter, the duly incorporated society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, humane society, pound, animal shelter or any author-9 10 ized agents thereof, hereinafter referred to for the purposes of this 11 section as the "impounding organization", may file a petition, with the court in which criminal charges have or will be brought, requesting that 12 the person [from whom an animal is seized or the owner of the animal] against whom criminal charges are pending ("the defendant") be ordered 14 to post a security. If the defendant is issued an appearance ticket, as 15 defined in subdivision twenty-six of section 1.20 of the criminal proce-16 17 dure law, the petition may be filed upon the issuance of such appearance 18 ticket or within a reasonable time thereafter. In all other circum-19 stances, the petition may be filed upon arraignment of charges or within 20 a reasonable time thereafter. The district attorney prosecuting the charges may file and obtain the requested relief on behalf of the 22 impounding organization if requested to do so by the impounding organization. The security shall be in an amount sufficient to secure payment 23 for all reasonable expenses expected to be incurred by the impounding organization in caring and providing for the animal pending disposition 3 of the charges. Reasonable expenses shall include, but not be limited to, estimated medical care and boarding of the animal for at least thirty days. The amount of the security, if any, shall be determined by the court after taking into consideration all of the facts and circumstances 7 of the case including, but not limited to the recommendation of the impounding organization having custody and care of the seized animal and 9 the cost of caring for the animal. If a security has been posted in 10 accordance with this section, the impounding organization may draw from 11 the security the actual reasonable costs to be incurred by such organ-12 ization in caring for the seized animal.

13 (1) Upon receipt of a petition pursuant to paragraph a of this subdi-14 vision the court shall set a hearing on the petition to be conducted 15 within ten business days of the filing of such petition. The petitioner 16 shall serve a true copy of the petition upon the defendant and the 17 district attorney if the district attorney has not filed the petition on 18 behalf of the petitioner. If the petition is filed after the issuance 19 of an appearance ticket but prior to arraignment on charges, service may 20 be effectuated by serving a true copy thereof personally upon the 21 defendant, or by sending a true copy thereof by certified mail to the address of the defendant. The petitioner shall also serve a true copy of 22 the petition on any interested person. For purposes of this subdivision, 23 interested person shall mean an individual, partnership, firm, joint 24 25 stock company, corporation, association, trust, estate or other legal entity who the court determines may have [a] an ownership or pecuniary 27 interest in the animal which is the subject of the petition. that, if a petition is filed after the issuance of an appearance ticket 28 29 but prior to arraignment on charges, and the defendant does not have 30 counsel at the time of arraignment, the court may assign counsel for 31 purposes of the petition if such defendant is otherwise eliqible for 32 appointed counsel for the underlying criminal offense. The petitioner or 33 the district attorney acting on behalf of the petitioner, shall have the 34 burden of proving by a preponderance of the evidence that the [person 35 from whom the animal was seized] defendant violated a provision of this 36 article. The court may waive for good cause shown the posting of securi-37 ty.

38 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 39 have become a law.
