IN ASSEMBLY

March 2, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. CRESPO -- Multi-Sponsored by -- M. of A. ARROYO, MOYA, RAMOS, RIVERA, RODRIGUEZ, SEPULVEDA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the elder law, the penal law, the criminal procedure law and the state finance law, in relation to crime prevention and control; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The elder law is amended by adding a new article 3 to read as follows:

ARTICLE III

ELDERLY CRIME PREVENTION AND CONTROL TRUST FUND ACT

Section 301. Short title.

302. Legislative finding and declaration.

303. Definitions.

304. Administration of trust fund.

305. Application procedures.

306. Rules and regulations.

307. Reporting.

308. Legislative hearings.

§ 301. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as the "Elderly Crime Prevention and Control Trust Fund Act".

§ 302. Legislative finding and declaration. This legislature does hereby find and declare that the elderly population of this state, which for the purposes of this article is defined as individuals over the age of sixty-two years, is uniquely vulnerable to actual and potential criminal victimization by virtue of physical frailty, concentrations in high risk urban neighborhoods, and socio-economic household factors advertising seniors as high visibility crime targets. This heightened vulnerability acts as a precursor for a generalized and debilitating sense of

1 fear which impacts on mobility, concepts of self-worth, and isolation
2 from the larger society. The legislature further finds and declares that
3 on the basis of available demographic information, the elderly popu-
4 lation of this state will continue to expand, thus requiring that the 5 problem of criminal victimization of the elderly be a focus of continu-
6 ing and paramount concern. This legislature further finds that although 7 the state's commitment of general revenue funds to the criminal justice
8 system has increased nearly three-fold in the past decade, crime
9 prevention and control activities targeted to our elderly population
10 have been wedded to moneys originating within the federal system. Addi-
11 tionally, statistical trends in the criminal victimization of the elder-
12 ly promise a continued escalation in seemingly rampant crime rates
13 despite the best efforts of law enforcement and community based organ-
14 izations. These findings, coupled with the philosophic shifts occurring 15 on a national level, mandate that responsibility for the safety and 16 well-being of elderly citizens rests principally with this legislature.
17 In response to that obligation, this legislature does hereby declare
18 and endorse the establishment of an exclusive dedicated revenue source 19 for the operation and maintenance of crime prevention, detection, and 20 enforcement activities for the sole benefit of elderly citizens in this 21 state.

22 § 303. Definitions. For the purposes of this article:

23 1. "Elderly person" means a person sixty-two years of age or older.

24 2. "Commissioner" means the chief administrative officer of the divi-
25 sion of criminal justice services.

26 3. "Grant recipient" means any local government, to include any town,
27 city, or county, or any local government agency that administers a crime

31 control trust fund, which is established pursuant to section ninety-sev-
32 en-pppp of the state finance law shall be administered and supervised

8 1. Provisions for periodic monitoring and evaluation of each program
9 awarded a grant recipient;

10 2. Provisions that limit the expenditure of funds for administrative 11 purposes to fifty per centum of the grant award; provided, however, if 12 the local government, local government agency, or community based organ-
13 ization shall match the state grant award with equal local resources,
14 seventy-five per centum may be used for administrative purposes.

15 § 307. Reporting. Grant recipients shall bi-annually provide the 16 commissioner such data as to reasonably reflect the funded program
17 activities for the inclusive period of January first through June thir-
18 tieth, and July first through December thirty-first of each calendar
19 year in which fund moneys are received and expended. 1. The commissioner

38 and

39 (c) encumbered and contracted funds from the current state fiscal 40 year.

41 2. On the basis of the plan submitted by the commissioner, joint 42 legislative committee hearings shall be conducted at the pleasure and 43 convenience of the appropriate committee chairpersons.

44 3. Expenses attendant to legislative hearings conducted pursuant to 45 this article shall be borne by the division of criminal justice
46 services.

48 follows:
