AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to unofficial and non-certified driving records

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new section 224-b to read as follows:

§ 224-b. Unofficial and non-certified driving records. The department shall maintain and make available on its website, unofficial and non-certified driving records for informational purposes only. Such records shall clearly state that such driving records are for informational purposes only and shall not include any of the following: certification statement; signature of the commissioner; or security watermark. Access to such records shall require the input of information from his or her most recent New York state driver's license, learner's permit or non-driver identification. There shall be no fee charged by the department for the access of such unofficial and non-certified driving records.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however, that effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
