Introduced by M. of A. DenDEKKER -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting more than one increase in the price of gasoline in any twenty-four hour period

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 392-k to read as follows:

§ 392-k. Unlawful motor fuel price increases; exceptions. 1. (a) It shall be unlawful for any nonrefiner engaged in commerce in this state to increase the price of any grade or quality of motor fuel sold at a retail outlet more than once in a twenty-four hour period.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any refiner, including any affiliate or agent thereof, engaged in commerce in this state to increase the price of any grade or quality of motor fuel sold more than once in a twenty-four hour period.

2. (a) Any violation of this section shall result in a civil fine of not more than five hundred dollars to be collected by the corporation counsel for any city or by the appropriate attorney of any political subdivision as shall be designated by the governing body of such political subdivision.

(b) An isolated, inadvertent incident involving activity prohibited pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall not be a violation of this section.

3. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "motor fuel" shall mean (i) all products commonly or commercially known or sold as gasoline (including casinghead and absorption or natural gasoline), benzol, benzene, or naphtha regardless of their classification or uses; and (ii) any liquid prepared, advertised, offered
