AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to provisions for home care and hospice in comprehensive emergency management plans

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 1 and 5 of section 23 of the executive law, as amended by section 4 of part B of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as follows:

1. Each county, except those contained within the city of New York, and each city with a population of one million or more, shall prepare a comprehensive emergency management plan. Each city with a population of less than one million, town and village is authorized to prepare a comprehensive emergency management ~~plans~~ plan. The disaster preparedness commission shall provide assistance and advice for the development of such plans. ~~[City]~~ Each city with a population of less than one million, town and village ~~plans~~ plan shall be coordinated with the county plan.

5. In preparing such plans, cooperation, advice and assistance shall be sought from local government officials, regional and local planning agencies, police agencies, fire departments and fire companies, local emergency management agencies, commercial and volunteer ambulance services, health and social services officials, community action agencies, the chief administrator of the courts, organizations for the elderly and the handicapped, agencies and organizations that provide home health care services, agencies and organizations that provide hospice services, other interested groups and the general public. Such

1 advice and assistance may be obtained through public hearings held on 2 public notice, or through other appropriate and practical methods.

3 § 2. Subparagraphs 17 and 18 of paragraph b of subdivision 7 of 4 section 23 of the executive law, as amended by section 4 of part B of 5 chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, are amended and a new subparagraph 19 is 6 added to read as follows:

7 (17) continued operation of governments of political subdivisions;

8 [~~and~~]

9 (18) utilization and coordination of programs to assist individuals 10 with household pets and service animals following a disaster, with 11 particular attention to means of evacuation, shelter and transportation 12 options[~~+~~]; and

13 (19) procedures for allowing access by physicians, nurses, other 14 medical professionals, personnel of certified home health agencies, long 15 term home health care programs or licensed home care services agencies
16 governed under article thirty-six of the public health law, and person-
17 nel of hospices certified pursuant to article forty of the public health 18 law or any other personnel deemed necessary to provide vital health care 19 to individuals in their care; such procedures shall also address how 20 such professionals and personnel will be required to be identified in 21 order to gain access to areas where access has otherwise been restricted 22 or subject to curfew in declared emergencies. Such procedures shall 23 ensure that access by such professionals and personnel in areas where 24 access has otherwise been restricted or subject to curfew shall not be 25 construed to prohibit local emergency management officials from denying 26 such access when in their discretion conditions necessitate such a 27 denial.

28 § 3. Each county, and each city with a population of one million or 29 more, that on the effective date of this act has already prepared a 30 comprehensive emergency management plan shall revise such plan in the 31 event such revisions are needed to comply with the provisions of this 32 act, and shall submit such revised plan to the division of homeland
33 security and emergency services on or before the one hundred eightieth 34 day after the effective date of this act.

35 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
