AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to provisions for home care and hospice in comprehensive emergency management plans

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 1 and 5 of section 23 of the executive law, as amended by section 4 of part B of chapter 56 of the laws of 2010, are amended to read as follows:

1. Each county, except those contained within the city of New York, and each city with a population of one million or more, shall prepare a comprehensive emergency management plan. Each city with a population of less than one million, town and village is authorized to prepare a comprehensive emergency management ~~plans~~ plan. The disaster preparedness commission shall provide assistance and advice for the development of such plans. ~~[City]~~ Each city with a population of less than one million, town and village ~~[plans]~~ plan shall be coordinated with the county plan.

5. In preparing such plans, cooperation, advice and assistance shall be sought from local government officials, regional and local planning agencies, police agencies, fire departments and fire companies, local emergency management agencies, commercial and volunteer ambulance services, health and social services officials, community action agencies, the chief administrator of the courts, organizations for the elderly and the handicapped, agencies and organizations that provide home health care services, agencies and organizations that provide

1 hospice services, other interested groups and the general public. Such 2 advice and assistance may be obtained through public hearings held on 3 public notice, or through other appropriate and practical methods, 4 through which such aforementioned groups may offer their input for 5 consideration on issues that support the effective preparation and 6 execution of the plan. In addition, in the case of home care and 7 hospice, such input may address procedures by which such providers may 8 be granted essential access to care for such patients during an emergen-9 cy.

10 § 2. Each county, and each city with a population of one million or 11 more, that on the effective date of this act has already prepared a 12 comprehensive emergency management plan shall revise such plan in the 13 event such revisions are needed to comply with the provisions of this 14 act, and shall submit such revised plan to the division of homeland
15 security and emergency services on or before the one hundred eightieth 16 day after the effective date of this act.

17 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
