2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

March 9, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. CYMBROWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the private housing finance law, in relation to the provision of rental assistance for low income elderly families, and to amend the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to imposing a tax on conveyances or transfers of residential real property whose consideration is greater than two million dollars

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. Section 654-b of the private housing finance law is
2	amended by adding a new subdivision 9 to read as follows:
3	9. The subsidiary corporation shall use the taxes described in subdi-
4	vision g of section 11-2102 of the administrative code of the city of
5	New York exclusively for the provision of the elderly rental assistance
б	program as described in article sixteen-B of this chapter.
7	§ 2. The private housing finance law is amended by adding a new arti-
8	cle 16-B to read as follows:
9	ARTICLE 16-B
10	ELDER RENTAL ASSISTANCE PROGRAM
11	Section 930. Statement of legislative findings and purpose.
12	931. Definitions.
13	932. Elder rental assistance program.
14	933. General and administrative provisions.
15	§ 930. Statement of legislative findings and purpose. The legislature
16	hereby finds that the city of New York is experiencing an extreme short-
17	age of affordable housing that serves low income senior citizens. For
18	hundreds of thousands of senior citizens living on pensions, retirement
19	savings and other fixed incomes, the rapid rise in rents has threatened
20	their ability to stay in their homes and neighborhoods. More than half
21	of seniors spend more on housing than they can afford and more than one hundred thousand seniors have waited for seven years or more on an 1 2 affordable housing waitlist. 3 The legislature further finds that citywide, almost two-thirds of all 4 senior renter households are among the lowest income households in the 5 city, earning less than fifty percent of area median income. Accordingб ly, the legislature finds that legislation should be enacted to create 7 the elder rental assistance program, which will provide monthly finan-8 cial assistance to rent-burdened seniors so they can live in dignity in 9 their own homes. This program will be financed through a marginal tax on 10 real estate transactions over two million dollars. 11 § 931. Definitions. As used in this article: 1. "Elderly family" shall mean a family, as defined in 24 C.F.R § 12 5.403, whose head (including co-head), spouse, or sole member is a 13 person who is at least sixty-two years of age. It may include two or 14 more persons who are at least sixty-two years of age living together, or 15 16 one or more persons who are at least sixty-two years of age living with one or more live-in aides, as defined in 24 C.F.R § 5.403, and shall 17 incorporate any amendments made to this definition in 24 C.F.R § 5.403. 18 19 2. "Low income families" shall mean those families whose incomes do 20 not exceed eighty per centum of the median income for the New York 21 metropolitan statistical area, as determined by the secretary of the federal department of housing and urban development with adjustments for 22 smaller and larger families. 23 24 § 932. Elder rental assistance program. 1. Subject to the availability of funds generated by the taxes described in subdivision g of section 25 26 11-2102 of the administrative code of the city of New York, the housing 27 assistance corporation, established by section six hundred fifty-four-b of this chapter, shall provide rental assistance to or on behalf of 28 29 low-income families whose members constitute an elderly family, who are 30 residents of the city of New York, and who pay more than thirty percent 31 of their monthly adjusted income as rent as calculated pursuant to 42 32 U.S.C § 1437a(a)(1)(A). The amount of rental assistance provided to or 33 on behalf of each such family pursuant to this subdivision shall be an amount up to the difference between (i) a rent established by the 34 35 department of housing preservation and development on an annual basis not to exceed the maximum monthly rent prescribed in 42 U.S.C. 36 S1437f(c)(1), or such lower rent as may be required by applicable law, 37 or as ordered pursuant to section four hundred sixty-seven-b or four 38 hundred sixty-seven-c of the real property tax law, if applicable and 39 (ii) thirty percent of each such family's monthly adjusted income as 40 41 calculated pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1437a(a)(1)(A). 42 2. To the extent a person or entity receives any such rental assist-43 ance on behalf of a particular elderly family, such person or entity 44 shall credit such assistance against the rent of such family on a month-45 ly basis. 46 3. The rental assistance provided pursuant to subdivision one of this 47 section shall continue upon the death or permanent departure of a member 48 of an elderly family who was at least sixty-two years of age, including the head of such family (including co-head) or his or her spouse, 49 provided that such elderly family is otherwise eligible for such rental 50 51 assistance and a member of such elderly family who is at least sixty-two 52 years of age has resided in the dwelling unit receiving such rental 53 assistance for at least one hundred eighty days immediately preceding 54 such death or permanent departure. 4. The rental assistance authorized by subdivision one of this section

55 4. The rental assistance authorized by subdivision one of this section 56 may be provided either as tenant-based or as building-based assistance.

1	Such assistance may be used in conjunction with any governmental program
2	or project to develop or preserve housing.
3	5. A person who has obtained a rent increase exemption order granted
4	pursuant to section four hundred sixty-seven-b or four hundred sixty-
5	seven-c of the real property tax law may also be eligible to receive
б	rental assistance pursuant to subdivision one of this section if such 7	person is a member of an elderly family that is otherwise eligible for
8	such assistance.
9	§ 933. General and administrative provisions. 1. The housing assist-
10	ance corporation and the department of housing preservation and develop-
11	ment shall have the authority to incur reasonable costs for adminis-
12	tration of the program authorized by section nine hundred thirty-two of
13	this article provided that no more than five percent of the taxes
14	collected pursuant to subdivision g of section 11-2102 of the adminis-
15	trative code of the city of New York shall be used for such costs.
16	2. The housing assistance corporation and the department of housing
17	preservation and development shall have the authority to promulgate such
18	rules as are necessary to carry out the provisions of section nine
19	hundred thirty-two of this article.
20	§ 3. Section 11-2102 of the administrative code of the city of New
21	York is amended by adding three new subdivisions g, h and i to read as
22	follows:
23	g. In addition to the taxes imposed by subdivisions a and b of this
24	section, there is hereby imposed a tax on each deed or other instrument
25	or transaction conveying or transferring residential real property or an
26	economic interest therein, at the time of delivery by a grantor to a
27	grantee, when the consideration for such property and any improvement
28	thereon (whether or not it is included in the same deed) is greater than 29	two million dollars, or at the time of the transfer of such economic 30	interest by a grantor to a grantee, where the consideration for such
31	economic interest is greater than two million dollars. Except as other-
