AN ACT to amend the navigation law, in relation to consideration of environmental conditions when permitting petroleum-bearing vessels to operate on the Hudson River

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The navigation law is amended by adding a new section 70-a 2 to read as follows:

3 § 70-a. Minimum conditions for petroleum-bearing vessels on the Hudson 4 river; tanker-avoidance zones. 1. The commissioner of environmental 5 conservation in consultation with the United States Coast Guard, the 6 board of commissioners of pilots, the department of state, at least one 7 licensed Hudson river pilot and appropriate officials of any state which 8 might be affected, may establish guidelines setting forth:

9 (a) the minimum conditions under which petroleum-bearing vessels as 10 defined in section one hundred seventy-two of this chapter may enter or 11 move upon the navigable waters of the Hudson river. Such conditions may 12 include, but not be limited to: (i) visibility; (ii) the tide and wind 13 conditions; and (iii) weather;

14 (b) the minimum conditions under which petroleum-bearing vessels may 15 enter or leave any major facility, port or harbor along the Hudson
16 river. Such conditions may include, but are not be limited to: (i) visi-17 bility; (ii) the tide and wind conditions; and (iii) weather;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD10512-14-7

1 (c) the establishment of tanker-avoidance zones, where it shall be 2 unlawful for petroleum-bearing vessels as defined in section one hundred 3 seventy-two of this chapter, to enter, move or anchor upon the navigable 4 waters of the Hudson river, except in cases of great emergency. Such 5 tanker-avoidance zones may be based upon physical and environmental 6 conditions which may include, but are not limited to: (i) navigational 7 hazards; (ii) environmental conditions; (iii) the existence of desig-8 nated significant coastal fish and wildlife habitats; (iv) proximity to 9 waterfront communities; (v) disproportionate impacts on communities; and 10 (vi) federally or state identified environmental remediation sites; and 11 may consider an affected community's waterfront revitalization plan or 12 comprehensive plan and the environmental justice communities impacts.

13 2. The commissioner of environmental conservation following consulta-
14 tion with the United States Coast Guard, the board of commissioners of 15 pilots, the department of state, the office of parks, recreation and 16 historic preservation, at least one licensed Hudson river pilot and 17 appropriate officials of any state which might be affected, shall submit 18 a report to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the 19 speaker of the assembly within one hundred twenty days of the effective 20 date of this section regarding recommendations on plans, policies and 21 programs affecting petroleum-bearing vessels on the navigable waters of 22 the Hudson river, as well as on any proposed rulemaking from the United 23 States Coast Guard which would impact the Hudson river.

24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
