Introduced by M. of A. PERRY -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT in relation to the enforceability of certain electronic commerce transactions

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, a contract entered into for the sale of goods via electronic commerce shall not give grounds for a cause of action for breach of contract if the website of the business furnishing such goods through which such transaction was made did not provide at the time of purchase an accurate business address and landline telephone number at which consumers could contact such business.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
