PART A

Section 1. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 43 to read as follows:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD10278-02-7

§ 43. Hire-NY tax credit. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer, which is subject to tax under article nine-A or twenty-two of this chapter and which creates a new job, shall be allowed a credit against such tax. The amount of the credit allowed under this section shall be equal to the product of 6.85 percent and the gross wages paid for each new employee. The credit shall not be more than five thousand dollars for any new employee for one full year of employment; if a new employee has been hired for less than a full tax year this amount shall be prorated and apportioned to each tax year but shall in no way decrease the full three consecutive years of credit eligibility. The taxpayer may claim this credit for each new employee for a period of three consecutive years of employment. The taxpayer may offset quarterly estimated tax returns with the amount of this credit earned in any previous quarter.

(b) Unemployment enhancement. For calendar years two thousand seventeen and two thousand eighteen if a new employee was receiving unemployment insurance benefits at the time of hire, an additional three thousand dollar credit will be allowed for the first full year of employment.

(c) Definitions. As used in this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(1) "New employee" shall mean any full time employee that causes the total number of employees to increase above base employment or credit employment, whichever is higher.

(2) "Base year" shall mean calendar year two thousand seventeen.

(3) "Base employment" shall mean the average number of full time employees or full time equivalent employees during the base year. For a new business, base employment shall begin at zero.

(4) "Credit employment" shall mean base employment plus the number of new employees for which a credit is earned for the prior tax years.

(d) Replacement employees. If a new employee for which a credit was earned leaves the payroll and an employee is hired which brings total employment above base employment but at or below credit employment level, the credit eligibility period for such employee shall be three years minus the amount of time (rounded to the next full month) the employer received the credit for the departing employee.

(e) No credit shall be allowed under this section to a taxpayer for any new employee if the taxpayer claims any other credit under this article for such new employee where the basis of such other credit is an increase in employment.

§ 2. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 49 to read as follows:

49. Hire-NY tax credit. (a) Allowance of credit. A taxpayer will be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in section forty-three of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

(b) Application of credit. The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year may not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this article. However, if the amount of credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such taxable year will be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of this chapter notwithstanding, no interest will be paid thereon.

§ 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (ccc) to read as follows:

(ccc) Hire-NY tax credit. (1) A taxpayer will be allowed a credit, to the extent allowed under section forty-three of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article.

(2) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.

§ 4. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xliii) to read as follows:

(xliii) Hire-NY tax credit under subsection (ccc)	Amount of credit under subdivision forty-nine of section two hundred ten-B

A violation of any of the provisions of this article [~~or article twenty-one of this chapter~~] or of any rule or regulation of the commissioner promulgated under this article [~~or such article twenty-one~~] shall constitute sufficient cause for the denial, suspension or revocation of a license. In addition, if the commissioner enters into a cooperative agreement with other jurisdictions pursuant to section five

If the commissioner enters into a cooperative agreement pursuant to such section five hundred twenty-eight, notice of a hearing shall be given and a hearing held within any time restrictions prescribed in such agreement.

[~~Provided, however, that in order for any person liable for the tax to claim such exemption, such person must retain a copy of the trip permit in his records for the complete period of time required by section five hundred seven of this chapter.~~] A carrier may not apply for more than ten trip permits under this section during a single calendar year.

§ 528. Procedure, administration and disposition of revenues. (a) [~~General. The provisions of subdivision two of section five hundred six and sections five hundred seven through five hundred fifteen of this chapter (excluding sections five hundred eight, five hundred twelve and five hundred thirteen) shall apply to the provisions of this article with the same force and effect as if the language of such subdivision and sections had been incorporated in full into this article and had expressly referred to the tax under this article, except to the extent that any such provision is either inconsistent with or not relevant to this article or inconsistent with a provision of any agreement which the commissioner enters into pursuant to subdivision (b) of this section, with such modification as may be necessary to adapt the language of such provisions to the tax imposed by this article, provided that (1) notwithstanding such section five hundred ten and subdivision four of section two thousand six of this chapter, a determination, as provided in such section five hundred ten, relating to the tax imposed by this article, shall finally and conclusively fix such tax, unless the person against whom it is assessed shall, within thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, petition the division of tax appeals for a hearing, or unless the commissioner on the commissioner's own motion shall redetermine the same; (2) the term "vehicular unit" shall~~

~~be read as "qualified motor vehicle"; (3) if the commissioner enters into a cooperative agreement under this section, the reference in section five hundred fourteen-a of this chapter to the United States postmark shall include a postmark made by the Canadian postal service; and (4) if the commissioner enters into a cooperative agreement under this section, for purposes of applying subdivision four of section five hundred fourteen of this chapter, the banks, banking houses or trust companies which may be designated by the commissioner may include any such banks, banking houses or trust companies designated or seeking designation by other member jurisdictions. For purposes of determining the amount of tax due in accordance with section five hundred ten of this chapter as incorporated by this subdivision, any return filed before the last day prescribed for its filing shall be deemed to be filed on such last day. The commissioner is authorized to provide for the joint administration, in whole or in part, of the tax imposed by article twenty-one of this chapter and the tax imposed by this article.~~

~~(b)~~] Cooperative agreements. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, the commissioner is authorized to enter into a cooperative agreement with other states, the District of Columbia or provinces or territories of Canada for the administration of the tax imposed by this article and similar taxes imposed by other member jurisdictions and for the reporting and payment of tax to a single base state and a proportional sharing of revenue of taxes relating to fuel use among the jurisdictions where a qualified motor vehicle is operated. The agreement may provide for determining the base state for carriers, carriers records requirements, audit procedures, exchange of information, persons eligible for tax licensing, defining qualified motor vehicles, determining if bonding is required and requiring bonds to secure the tax imposed by this article and similar taxes imposed by other member jurisdictions, specifying reporting requirements and periods including defining uniform penalty and interest rates for late reporting, determining methods for collecting and forwarding of taxes, interest and penalties to another jurisdiction, notice and timing of hearings and other provisions as will facilitate the administration of the agreement. The commissioner may, pursuant to the terms of the agreement, forward to the proper officers of another member jurisdiction any information in the commissioner's possession relating to the manufacture, receipt, sale, use, transportation or shipment of motor fuel or diesel motor fuel by any person and may share any information relating to the administration of taxes pursuant to the agreement with such officers. The commissioner may disclose to the proper officers of another member jurisdiction the location of offices, motor vehicles and other real and personal property of carriers. The agreement may provide for each member jurisdiction to audit the records of persons based in the member jurisdiction and determine taxes due each member jurisdiction. The commissioner may adopt rules and regulations for the administration and enforcement of the agreement. In connection with the administration of taxes under such a cooperative agreement, the commissioner may enter into an agreement with other member jurisdictions and any banks, banking houses, trust companies or other similar institutions with respect to the payment of any tax, fees, penalty or interest to such banks, banking houses, trust companies or similar institutions and the filing of returns and reports with such banks, banking houses, trust companies or similar institutions as agent of the commissioner and such other member jurisdictions. Pursuant to a written agreement made with one or more of the appropriate departments, agencies, officers or instrumentalities of other jurisdictions, the commissioner may let contracts for provision of such services to the department and to one or more of such entities of other jurisdictions; provided, that provisions shall be made in all such agreements with the participating governmental entities and in all such contracts let by the commissioner for the assumption by each of the participating governmental entities of sole responsibility for its proportionate share of the costs under the terms of such contract. The commissioner may contract for such services jointly with and pursuant to a contract let by the appropriate department, agency, officer or instrumentality of another jurisdiction; provided that (1) the commissioner shall approve the proposed terms and conditions of all such joint governmental contracts, (2) the letting of such joint governmental contract shall be based on invitation of competitive bids or proposals, and (3) the participation by the department in any such joint contract shall be preceded by an evaluation and finding in writing by the commissioner that a reasonable potential exists for the saving of costs by the state, by means of such joint governmental contract.

In the event the rate of tax imposed under this article or under section three hundred one-h of this chapter or the rate of surcharge imposed on such tax changes and such change does not coincide with the beginning of a reporting period, the rates of tax and surcharge for the reporting period which includes such change shall be equal to the sum of the respective rates otherwise applicable in each month of the reporting period divided by the number of months in the reporting period.

[~~(d)~~] (c) Construction. In the event the commissioner, pursuant to the authority of this article, enters into a cooperative agreement as provided in this section, the commissioner shall carry out any provision of such agreement required for continued New York state participation in such agreement, to the extent not inconsistent with a specific requirement of this article or any other provision of the laws and the constitution of the state of New York.
