AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to the manufacture and sale of smartphones that are capable of being decrypted and unlocked by the manufacturer

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399-k to read as follows:

§ 399-k. Smartphones. 1. For the purposes of this section, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

(a) "Smartphone" means a cellular radio telephone or other mobile voice communications handset device that includes the following features:

i. Utilizes a mobile operating system.

ii. Possesses the capability to utilize mobile software applications, access and browse the Internet, utilize text messaging, utilize digital voice service, and send and receive email.

iii. Has wireless network connectivity.

iv. Is capable of operating on a long-term evolution network or successor wireless data network communication standards.

(b) "Sold in New York," or any variation thereof, means that the smartphone is sold at retail from a location within the state, or the smartphone is sold and shipped to an end-use consumer at an address within the state. "Sold in New York" does not include a smartphone that is resold in the state on the secondhand market or that is consigned and held as collateral on a loan.

(c) "Leased in New York," or any variation thereof, means that the smartphone is contracted for a specified period of time to an end-use consumer at an address within the state.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD09153-01-7

1     2. Any smartphone that is manufactured on or after January first, two 2     thousand eighteen, and sold or leased in New York, shall be capable of 3     being decrypted and unlocked by its manufacturer or its operating system 4     provider.

5     3. The sale or lease in New York of a smartphone manufactured on or 6     after January first, two thousand eighteen that is not capable of being
7     decrypted and unlocked by its manufacturer or its operating system
8     provider shall subject the seller or lessor to a civil penalty of two 9     thousand five hundred dollars for each smartphone sold or leased if it 10    is demonstrated that the seller or lessor of the smartphone knew at the 11    time of the sale or lease that the smartphone was not capable of being 12    decrypted and unlocked by its manufacturer or its operating system
13    provider. No seller or lessor who pays the civil penalty may pass any 14    portion of that penalty on to any purchaser of smartphones by raising 15    the sales or lease price of smartphones.

16    4. The retail sale or lease of a smartphone manufactured on or after 17    January first, two thousand eighteen that is not capable of being
18    decrypted and unlocked by its manufacturer or its operating system
19    provider shall not result in liability to the seller or lessor if the 20    inability of the manufacturer and operating system provider to decrypt
21    and unlock the smartphone is the result of actions taken by any person
22    or entity other than the manufacturer, the operating system provider, 23    the seller, or the lessor so long as such actions were unauthorized by 24    the manufacturer, the operating system provider, the seller, or the 25    lessor unless at the time of sale or lease the seller or lessor had 26    received notification that the manufacturer and operating system provid-
27    er were unable to decrypt and unlock smartphones that had been acted 28    upon in the manner described above.

29    5. A civil suit to enforce this section may be brought by the follow-
30    ing parties and none others: (a) the Attorney General, for any sale or 31    lease of a smartphone in New York, and (b) the district attorney for any 32    sale or lease of a smartphone in the county represented by the district 33    attorney, provided, however that the seller or lessor may be subject to 34    not more than a single penalty for each sale or lease of a smartphone.

35    § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
