AN ACT to amend the penal law and the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to safety in active work zones

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The penal law is amended by adding two new sections 120.75 and 120.80 to read as follows:

§ 120.75 Vehicular assault in an active work zone in the second degree.

1. A person is guilty of vehicular assault in an active work zone in the second degree when, with criminal negligence, he or she:

a. enters or intrudes into an active work zone without permission while operating a motor vehicle; and

b. such entry or intrusion causes serious physical injury to another person.

2. For purposes of this section:

a. "active work zone" shall mean the physical area of a highway, street or private road on which construction, maintenance or utility work is being conducted, which area is marked by signs, channeling devices, barriers, pavement markings, and/or work vehicles, and where workers are physically present; and

b. "permission" shall mean direction from a flag person, police officer or other visibly designated person in charge of traffic control or direction from a traffic control device regulating entry therein.

Vehicular assault in an active work zone in the second degree is a class E felony.

§ 120.80 Vehicular assault in an active work zone in the first degree.

1. A person is guilty of vehicular assault in an active work zone in the first degree when he or she recklessly:
