Introduced by M. of A. RICHARDSON -- read once and referred to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to instruction in black history

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 801-b 2 to read as follows:

§ 801-b. Instruction in black history. In a city having a population of one million or more people the regents shall ensure that the course of instruction in grades kindergarten through twelve includes a component of black history. The regents shall determine how to incorporate such component in existing curricula and the commissioner shall promulate any regulations needed to carry out such determination of the regents. For the purposes of this section, black history shall include, but not be limited to the women's abolitionist movement, Shirley Chisholm, David Dinkins, the Harlem renaissance, the Buffalo anti-slavery conference held in eighteen forty-three and the suffrage movement for African American Long Islanders.

14 § 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 15 it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
