§ 215-a. Next of kin registry. 1. The commissioner shall establish and operate, within the department, an automated, statewide internet accessible website to be known as the "next of kin registry". Such registry shall be capable of storing emergency contact information of the holders of drivers' licenses, learners' permits and non-driver identification 8 cards to be accessible by police officers, emergency medical services and treating physicians pursuant to section six hundred seven of this 10 chapter. Any holder of a driver's license, learner's permit or non-dri-11 ver identification card may voluntarily submit, via an internet website 12 established therefor, the names, addresses and telephone numbers of two 13 emergency contacts for inclusion in the next of kin registry.

2. In the implementation of the next of kin registry, the commissioner shall establish a process whereby any holder of a driver's license, 15 learner's permit or non-driver identification card may electronically sign into the department internet website using his or her license, 18 permit or card number. Thereafter, such holder may enter his or her 19 emergency contact information for not more than two emergency contact 20 persons, or may revise or update previously entered emergency contact information.

EXPLANATION -- Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
