Introduced by M. of A. GJONAJ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the highway law, in relation to liability of state for damages

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 58 of the highway law, as amended by chapter 1110
2 of the laws of 1971, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 58. Liability of state for damages. The state shall [~~not~~] be liable 4 for damages suffered either by any person or to his or her property from 5 defects in state highways[~~, except between the first day of May and the~~ 6 ~~fifteenth day of November~~] on such highways as are maintained by the 7 state under such system as the commissioner of transportation may adopt 8 pursuant to section twelve of this chapter, but the liability for such 9 damages shall otherwise remain as now provided by law, notwithstanding 10 the construction or improvement and maintenance of such highways by the 11 state under this chapter; but nothing herein contained shall be 12 construed to impose on the state any liability for defects in bridges
13 over which the state has no control. The state shall reimburse any 14 person for damages suffered by him or her or to his or her property
15 which were incurred on such highways as are maintained by the state.
16 Property damages shall be limited to the value of the repairs made by a 17 certified automotive technician. The burden of proof lies with the 18 person who suffered the damage to show the state was aware of and 19 acknowledged the defect and failed to correct it within a reasonable
20 amount of time. For purposes of this section, reasonable amount of time
21 shall mean a maximum of two weeks. Within the limits of incorporated 22 villages the state shall maintain a width of pavement equal to the width 23 of pavement constructed or improved at the expense of the state, if a 24 state highway, the location of the state's portion of such roadway with-25 in said incorporated limits to be determined by the center line of the

1 roadway as shown on the plans on file with the department of transporta-
2 tion and the state shall be liable for damages to persons or property
3 only when such damage shall occur as a result of the defective condition
4 of the portion of improved highway as above described.

5 § 2. No reimbursement required under section 58 of the highway law, as 6 amended by section one of this act, shall be paid prior to the effective 7 date of this act.

8 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
