AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to the disclosure of charitable fund disbursements after donations

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 178 to read as follows:

§ 178. Disclosure of charitable fund disbursements after donations. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, any charitable organization, or professional fundraiser, or professional solicitor acting on behalf of a charitable organization, shall disclose to donors the allocation of disbursements of their donation on any written form of communication sent following a donation. Such information shall include the sum of money that went directly toward helping with the charity's charitable work and the dollar amount of that donation that was allocated toward other purposes, including but not limited to, administrative expenses.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
