AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to the duty of a landlord to provide a written receipt of rent paid

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 235-e of the real property law, as amended by chapter 848 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

§ 235-e. Duty of landlord to provide written receipt. (a) Upon the receipt of rent for residential premises in the form of cash or any instrument other than the personal check of the tenant, it shall be the duty of the landlord to provide the payor or if paid in whole or part by a social services district or the office of temporary and disability assistance, then the tenant, with a written receipt containing the following:

1. The date;

2. The amount;

3. The identity of the premises and period for which paid; and

4. The signature and title of the person receiving the rent or the printed name, address and telephone number of the licensed real estate broker or firm in charge of the dwelling or the printed name, New York city address and telephone number of the managing agent or designee described in paragraph five of subdivision a of section 27-2098 of the administrative code of the city of New York.

(b) Where a tenant, in writing, requests that a landlord provide a receipt for rent paid by personal check, it shall be the duty of the landlord to provide the payor with the receipt described in subdivision (a) of this section for each such request made in writing.

(c) In addition to any other remedy authorized by law, a court may impose a twenty-five dollar reduction in the rent for each failure to
