state without notice and public hearing before the commission. Upon 1 receipt of the notice required pursuant to this paragraph, the commis-2 3 sion shall provide notice of the proceeding to interested parties and 4 the public; and shall promptly fix a date for the commencement of a 5 public hearing thereon not less than sixty days after such receipt. The 6 testimony presented at such hearing may be presented in writing or oral-7 ly, provided that the commission may make rules designed to exclude 8 repetitive, redundant or irrelevant testimony while giving all inter-9 ested parties the opportunity to present their documentary and/or testi-10 monial evidence. The commission shall make a record of all testimony in 11 all contested hearings. For purposes of this section "public hearing" means a public forum at a physical location, attended by commission 12 13 members or their designees, where oral testimony is accepted and written 14 testimony may be submitted for inclusion in the record. Such forum shall 15 be open to parties to the proceeding and the general public for the 16 presentation of comments that shall be limited to relevant facts direct-17 ly related to the proceeding in question. Such hearing shall be commenced upon proper notice to the parties to the proceeding and the 18 19 public at least thirty days prior to the scheduled date. Should the commission rule in favor of closing a call center or other facility 20 21 providing the customer assistance set forth in paragraph (a) of this subdivision or relocating such customer assistance to another area of 22 New York state then the telecommunication service provider or their 23 24 subsidiaries shall provide notification one hundred eighty calendar days 25 in advance of closing or relocation.

- (c) This subdivision shall not apply to the collection of debt where by company policy such debt is directed to a collection agency or similar service companies.
- § 2. The general business law is amended by adding a new section 399yyy to read as follows:

§ 399-yyy. Cable service provider. 1. Every cable service provider and their subsidiaries furnishing traditional landline telephone service, fiber optic service, voice over internet protocol (VoIP), data circuits, cable or internet services shall provide call center service assistance including, but not limited to operator services, director assistance bureaus and call completion services for the following: (a) explaining company rates, regulations, policies, procedures, equipment, customer service options and common practices; (b) determining customer financial responsibility, required deposits, billing rates, or handling payment and other credit arrangements such as obtaining deposits, financial statements and payment plans; (c) taking requests for new or additional services, including, but not limited to, emergency service, completing assistance with dialing, using calling cards, connecting collect calls, busy line verification or relay centers for the hearing impaired, providing requested local and national telephone numbers, reverse number searches and taking requests for and completing the publishing and nonpublishing of a telephone number, and providing assistance to pay phone customers; and (d) preparing installation and repair service orders and obtaining access to subscriber's premises.

2. No cable service provider and their subsidiaries shall close a call center or other facility providing the customer assistance set forth in subdivision one of this section or relocate such customer assistance to another area of New York state or outside of New York state without notice and public hearing before the commission. Upon receipt of the notice required pursuant to this subdivision, the commission shall provide notice of the proceeding to interested parties and the public; and shall promptly fix a date for the commencement of a public hearing thereon not less than sixty days after such receipt. The testimony 3 presented at such hearing may be presented in writing or orally, provided that the commission may make rules designed to exclude repetitive, redundant or irrelevant testimony while giving all interested parties the opportunity to present their documentary and/or testimonial evidence. The commission shall make a record of all testimony in all 7 8 contested hearings. For purposes of this section "public hearing" means 9 a public forum at a physical location, attended by commission members or their designees, where oral testimony is accepted and written testimony 10 11 may be submitted for inclusion in the record. Such forum shall be open to parties to the proceeding and the general public for the presentation 12 13 of comments that shall be limited to relevant facts directly related to the proceeding in question. Such hearing shall be commenced upon proper 14 notice to the parties to the proceeding and the public at least thirty 15 16 days prior to the scheduled date. Should the commission rule in favor 17 of closing a call center or other facility providing the customer assistance set forth in subdivision one of this section or relocating 18 19 such customer assistance to another area of New York state then the 20 cable service provider or their subsidiaries shall provide notification 21 one hundred eighty calendar days in advance of closing or relocation. 22 3. This section shall not apply to the collection of debt where by
