Introduced by M. of A. TITONE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Banks

AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to refund anticipation loans

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The banking law is amended by adding a new section 46 to 2 read as follows:

3 § 46. Refund anticipation loans. 1. As used in this section:

4 (a) "Borrower" means a person who receives the proceeds of a refund
5 anticipation loan;

6 (b) "Facilitator" means a person who, individually, or in conjunction 7 or cooperation with another person, makes a refund anticipation loan,
8 processes, receives or accepts for delivery an application for a refund
9 anticipation loan, issues a check in payment of refund anticipation loan
10 proceeds, or in any other manner acts to allow the making of a refund
11 anticipation loan. The term does not include a bank, trust company, 12 savings bank, savings and loan association, credit union or person or 13 entity issued a license under the provisions of article nine of this 14 chapter, operating under the laws of the United States or this state, or 15 any person who acts solely as an intermediary and does not deal with the 16 public in the making of a refund anticipation loan;

17 (c) "Refund anticipation loan" means a loan arranged to be paid
18 directly from the proceeds of a borrower's income tax refund;

19 (d) "Refund anticipation loan fee" means any charges, fees or other
20 consideration charged or imposed for the making of a refund anticipation
21 loan. The term does not include any charges, fees or other consideration
22 charged or imposed in the ordinary course of business by a facilitator 23 for services that do not result in the making of a loan including, but 24 not limited to, fees for tax return preparation services or for the 25 electronic filing of income tax returns; and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 (e) "Annual percentage rate" shall have the same meaning as provided
2 in paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section six-1 of this chapter.

3 2. At the time a borrower applies for a refund anticipation loan, a
4 facilitator shall disclose to such borrower on a document that is sepa-
5 rate from the loan application:

6 (a) The estimated fee for preparing and electronically filing an 7 income tax return;

8 (b) The refund anticipation loan fee schedule;

9 (c) The annual percentage rate for the loan;

10 (d) The estimated total cost to the borrower for utilizing a refund
11 anticipation loan;

12 (e) The estimated number of days within which the loan proceeds shall 13 be paid to the borrower if the loan is approved;

14 (f) The borrower is responsible for repayment of the loan and related 15 fees in the event the income tax refund is not paid or not paid in full; 16 and

17 (g) The availability of electronic filing of the income tax return of 18 the borrower and the average time announced by the Internal Revenue 19 Service within which the borrower can expect to receive a refund if the 20 borrower's return is electronically filed and the borrower does not 21 obtain a refund anticipation loan.

22 3. No refund anticipation loan shall be made at any location other 23 than a location in which the principal business is tax preparation. All 24 disclosure documents required by subdivision two of this section shall 25 be available in English, Spanish and in any other language spoken by 26 more than five percent of the population in the vicinity of the 27 facilitator's location.

28 4. Notwithstanding any other provision of the banking law or the 29 general obligations law, the interest rate for a refund anticipation
30 loan shall not exceed (a) sixty percent per annum for the initial twen-
31 ty-one days of such loan, and (b) twenty percent per annum for the peri-32 od commencing on the twenty-second day of such loan and ending on the 33 date of payment.

34 5. Any facilitator who violates any provision of this section shall be 35 subject to a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars for 36 each such violation. Such penalty shall be assessed by the superinten-
37 dent as provided in section forty-four of this article. In addition, any 38 facilitator who violates any provision of this section shall be liable 39 to any aggrieved borrower in an amount equal to three times the amount 40 of the refund anticipation loan fee, plus reasonable attorney's fees, in 41 a civil action brought by the aggrieved borrower or by the attorney
42 general on behalf of the aggrieved borrower.

43 6. The superintendent may prescribe regulations to carry out the 44 provisions and purposes of this section.

45 § 2. Nothing in this act shall be construed to impair or limit the 46 validity of any additional local laws or regulations, not inconsistent
47 with the provisions of this act, applicable to the making of refund
48 anticipation loans.

49 § 3. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part of this act 50 be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such 51 judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder hereof but 52 shall be applied in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, 53 section or part hereof directly involved in the controversy in which 54 such judgment shall have been rendered.

55 § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of October next succeed-
56 ing the date on which it shall have become a law; provided, however,

1 that effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any 2 rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its 3 effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on 4 or before such effective date.
