IN ASSEMBLY

May 25, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. SANTABARBARA -- read once and referred to the Committee on Correction

AN ACT to amend the correction law, the penal law and the executive law, in relation to prohibiting certain sex offenders from entering any school grounds; and to amend the education law, in relation to requiring school districts to adopt procedures for the admission of visitors to a school building

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 168-w of the correction law, as relettered by chapter 604 of the laws of 2005, is renumbered section 168-x and a new section 168-w is added to read as follows:

§ 168-w. Prohibition on entering any school grounds. Notwithstanding any other law, rule or regulation to the contrary, it shall be unlawful for any level two or three sex offender to knowingly enter into or upon any school grounds, as that term is defined in subdivision fourteen of section 220.00 of the penal law. The prohibition imposed by this section shall remain in effect for as long as a person is classified as a level two or three sex offender.

§ 2. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 4-a of section 65.10 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 67 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

(a) When imposing a sentence of probation or conditional discharge upon a person convicted of an offense defined in article one hundred thirty, two hundred thirty-five or two hundred sixty-three of this chapter, or section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 of this chapter, and the victim of such offense was under the age of eighteen at the time of such offense or such person has been designated a level two or three sex offender pursuant to subdivision six of section 168-l of the correction law, the court shall require, as a mandatory condition of such sentence, that such sentenced offender shall refrain from knowingly entering into
