Introduced by M. of A. JAFFEE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Judiciary

AN ACT to amend the public health law and the education law, in relation to the definition of person in parental relationship to a child

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph c of subdivision 1 of section 2164 of the public health law, as amended by chapter 401 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:

c. The term "person in parental relation to a child" shall mean and include [~~his~~] the child's father or mother, by birth or adoption, [~~his~~] the child's legally appointed guardian, a person possessing a lawful order of custody of a child, or [~~his~~] the child's custodian. A person shall be regarded as the custodian of a child if he or she has assumed the charge and care of the child because the parents or legally appointed guardian of the minor have died, are imprisoned, are mentally ill, or have been committed to an institution, or because they have abandoned or deserted such child or are living outside the state or their whereabouts are unknown, or have designated the person pursuant to title fifteen-A of article five of the general obligations law as a person in parental relation to the child.

§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 3212 of the education law, as amended by chapter 119 of the laws of 2005, is amended to read as follows:

1. Definition. As used in this article, a person in parental relation to another individual shall include [~~his~~] the child's father or mother, by birth or adoption, [~~his~~] the child's step-father or step-mother, [~~his~~] the child's legally appointed guardian, a person possessing a lawful order of custody of a child, or [~~his~~] the child's custodian. A person shall be regarded as the custodian of another individual if he or she has assumed the charge and care of such individual because the parents or legally appointed guardian of such individual have died, are
