AN ACT to amend the agriculture and markets law, in relation to requiring poultry products treated with antibiotics containing arsenic to bear a label so indicating

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The agriculture and markets law is amended by adding a new section 96-z-30 to read as follows:

§ 96-z-30. Arsenic labeling. No poultry or poultry product for human consumption which has received food treated with antibiotics containing arsenic, shall be sold, exposed for sale, exchanged or transported within the state unless the same shall bear a label indicating such product was "fed with antibiotics containing arsenic".

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date is authorized to be made on or before such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
