2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 9, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. RODRIGUEZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Housing

AN ACT to amend the public housing law, in relation to enacting the "public housing safety and security act of 2017"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The public housing law is amended by adding a new article
2	12-A to read as follows:
3	ARTICLE 12-A
4	PUBLIC HOUSING SAFETY AND SECURITY
5	Section 310. Short title.
6	311. Legislative findings.
7	312. Authority to issue grants.
8	313. Eligible activities.
9	314. Applications.
10	315. Periodic safety inspections.
11	316. Annual report.
12	§ 310. Short title. This article shall be known and may be cited as
13	the "public housing safety and security act of 2017".
14	§ 311. Legislative findings. 1. (a) The state has a duty to provide
15	public housing that is decent, safe, secure and free from crime;
16	(b) Those who live in public housing projects in many areas of this
17	state suffer from rampant crime, including break-ins, larceny, robbery,
18	burglary and rape;
19	(c) Gang activity is increasingly imposing a reign of terror on public
20	housing tenants; the increase in drug-related crime not only leads to
21	murders, muggings, and other forms of violence against tenants, but also
22	to a deterioration of the physical environment that requires substantial
23	government expenditures; and

1	(d) Local law enforcement authorities often lack the resources to deal
2	with the constant surveillance and patrolling in public housing partic-
3	ularly in light of the recent reductions in federal aid to cities.
4	2. Recent events at certain housing projects demonstrate that these
5	issues are serious, pressing and in need of immediate attention.
б	§ 312. Authority to issue grants. The division, in accordance with the
7	provisions of this article, may issue grants to public housing authori-
8	ties or agencies for use in improving security in public housing
9	projects.
10	§ 313. Eligible activities. A public housing authority or agency may
11	use a grant under this article for:
12	1. the employment of security personnel in public housing projects;
13	2. reimbursement of local law enforcement agencies for additional
14	security and protective services for public housing projects;
15	3. physical improvements in public housing projects which are specif-
16	ically designed to enhance security;
17	4. training, communications equipment, and other related equipment for
18	use by voluntary public housing tenant patrols acting in cooperation
19	with local law enforcement officials;
20	5. providing funding to nonprofit public housing resident management
21	corporations and tenant councils to develop security programs involving
22	site residents; and
23	6. purchase and installation of cameras throughout public areas of
24	public housing buildings.
25	§ 314. Applications. 1. To receive a grant under this article, a
26	public housing authority or agency shall submit an application to the
27	commissioner at such time, in such manner, and accompanied by such addi-
28	tional information as the commissioner may reasonably require. Such
29	application shall include, but not be limited to, a plan for addressing
30	security concerns/issues at the requesting public authority or agency.
31	2. The commissioner shall approve applications under this article
32	based upon:
33	(a) the extent of the crime problem in the facilities of the public
34	housing project;
35	(b) the quality of the plan of the public housing authority or agency
36	to address security concerns in the public housing project or projects;
37	(c) the capability of the public housing authority or agency to carry
38	out the plan; and
39	(d) the extent to which the local government and local community
40	support the anti-crime activities of the public housing authority or
41	agency.
42	§ 315. Periodic safety inspections. Periodic safety inspections by
43	division agents or employees of public housing units are required. Such
44	inspections shall occur twice per year and ensure that public housing
45	units comport with (1) lead paint regulations; (2) have sufficient and
46	operational locking doors; (3) entrances and doorways into and out of
47	buildings are secure and structurally sound; (4) windows in public areas
48	have adequate locking devices that work; and (5) such other and further
49	inspection as is deemed necessary by the division. The agency shall
50	develop regulations sufficient to effect inspections pursuant to this
51	section.
52	§ 316. Annual report. The division shall submit an annual report to
53	the governor, temporary president of the senate, speaker of the assem-
54	bly, minority leader of the senate and the minority leader of the assem-
55	bly, including, but not limited to, outlining the state of safety and

56 security at public housing units throughout the state; specific build-

1	ings	that	have	fail	ed d	livisior	1 ir	ispec	ction	n; violat	ions;	and	numk	per of
2	crime	s that	have	occur	red a	at each	pro	ject	.
3	§ 2	. This	act	shall	take	effect	on	the	one	hundred	eight	ieth	day	after
4	it sha	all hav	ve be	come a	law.	•
