2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

December 6, 2017

Introduced by M. of A. VANEL -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT creating a temporary state commission to study and investigate how to regulate artificial intelligence; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. A temporary state commission, to be known as the New York
2 state artificial intelligence commission (hereinafter "commission"), is 3 hereby created to study and make determinations on issues including but 4 not limited to:

5 (a) current law within this state addressing artificial intelligence;

6 (b) comparative state policies that have aided in creating a regulatory 7 structure for artificial intelligence, and whether such measures
8 would be similarly effective in this state;

9 (c) criminal and civil liability regarding violations of law caused by 10 entities equipped with artificial intelligence;

11 (d) the impact of artificial intelligence on employment in this state;

12 (e) the impact of artificial intelligence on the acquiring and disclosure 13 of confidential information;

14 (f) potential restrictions on the use of artificial intelligence in 15 weaponry; and

16 (g) the potential impact on the technology industry of any regulatory 17 measures proposed by this study.

18 § 2. The commission shall consist of eleven members to be appointed as 19 follows: five shall be appointed by the governor; two shall be appointed 20 by the temporary president of the senate and one by the minority leader
21 of the senate; and two shall be appointed by the speaker of the assembly 22 and one by the minority leader of the assembly. The members of the 23 commission shall serve at the pleasure of the official making the 24 appointment of such member. Of the five members appointed by the gover-

2 Vacancies in the membership of the commission shall be filled in the 3 manner provided for original appointments. Membership on the commission
4 shall not constitute a public office. A chairperson and vice-chairperson 5 of the commission shall be elected by a majority of its members, all 6 members being present.

7 § 3. The members of the commission shall receive no compensation for 8 their services, but shall be allowed their actual and necessary expenses 9 incurred in the performance of their duties pursuant to this act.

10 § 4. The commission may conduct any hearings or take any written 11 testimony as it deems necessary, and shall take all other steps neces-12 sary to provide a thorough analysis of all issues related to the 13 provisions listed in section one of this act.

14 § 5. The commission shall issue its final report no later than one
15 hundred eighty days after the effective date of this act. The commission 16 shall issue its final report to the governor, the speaker of the assem-17 bly, the minority leader of the assembly, the temporary president of the 18 senate, and the minority leader of the senate.

19 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately and shall expire one year 20 after such date.
