AN ACT to amend the public health law and the administrative code of the city of New York, in relation to requiring restaurants that offer online delivery services to post their most recent sanitary inspection grade on their website

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 1352-d of the public health law is renumbered subdivision 3 and a new subdivision 2 is added to read as follows:

2. (a) Every food service establishment that provides food delivery services on their website and/or provides food delivery services through an internet-based food delivery service website, and is required by any general, special or local law to post its most current sanitary inspection grade from the department, shall conspicuously post such food service establishment's most current sanitary inspection grade from the department on all such websites that provide food delivery services to consumers.

(b) As used in this section, "internet-based food delivery service" shall mean any food service establishment or any third-party website that accepts food orders for delivery from customers via the internet.

§ 2. The administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new section 17-195.1 to read as follows:

§ 17-195.1 Posting of sanitary inspection grade. a. Definitions. 1. "Food service establishment" shall have the meaning as such term is defined in section 81.03 of the health code of the city of New York.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
