AN ACT to direct the department of state to study, evaluate, and make recommendations concerning safety standards at baseball stadiums

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Definitions. For the purposes of this act, "baseball stadi-2 um" means a place of public assembly with an occupancy capacity of at 3 least five thousand persons, in which baseball games are played and 4 seating or standing room is assigned by issuance of tickets purchased by 5 spectators.

6 § 2. Study. The department of state is hereby authorized and directed 7 to conduct a study of the protective netting currently in use at base-8 ball stadiums in the state to determine whether such netting is suffi-9 cient to protect spectators during baseball games. Such study shall 10 examine, at a minimum, the following:

11 (a) the reported incidence of injuries suffered in baseball stadiums 12 in the state by spectators as a result of being struck by a baseball or 13 a thrown bat, the nature and severity of such injuries, and the general 14 location where such injuries were suffered by such spectators within the 15 baseball stadiums;

16 (b) the policies of the owners or operators of baseball stadiums in 17 the state regarding the reporting of injuries, and whether or not such 18 policies adequately disclose the rate of injuries suffered by spectators
19 in such stadiums;

20 (c) whether baseball stadiums in the state are maintaining adequate 21 protective netting to ensure the safety of spectators; and

22 (d) any other steps that may be taken to increase safety for specta-23 tors at baseball games in the state, including, but not limited to the 24 posting of notices on tickets, seats, or other locations within a base-

2 of being struck by a baseball or thrown bat.

3 § 3. Powers. The department of state may consult with any state or 4 local office, agency, or department and request information from any 5 such entity that is relevant and material to the completion of this 6 study and report.

7 § 4. Report. No later than one year after the effective date of this 8 act, the department of state shall deliver a report of the findings of 9 the study conducted pursuant to section two of this act to the governor, 10 the temporary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly.

11 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
