2     1. The authority shall establish a fund to be known as the "New York 3     city dedicated personal income tax surcharge fund" which shall be kept 4     separate from and shall not be commingled with any other moneys of the 5     authority. The fund shall consist of a "transit infrastructure improve-6     ment account" and a "low-income resident reduced fare account."

7     2. There shall be deposited into the New York city dedicated personal 8     income tax surcharge fund the moneys transferred to the metropolitan 9     transportation authority from the New York city transitional finance
10    authority pursuant to subsection (e) of section thirteen hundred four-E 11    of the tax law, and any other provision of law directing or permitting 12    the deposit of moneys in such fund, to be used exclusively for the 13    financing of transit infrastructure improvements and reduced fares for 14    low-income residents of the city of New York.

15    3. Moneys in the transit infrastructure improvement account (a) shall 16    be used to fund capital projects that satisfy the following criteria:
17    (i) defined as state of good repair, normal replacement, or an Americans
18    with Disabilities Act related system improvement within the capital 19    program of the authority; and (ii) included in any of the following
20    categories within the capital program of the authority: New York city 21    transit authority buses, subway cars, track, line equipment, line struc-
22    tures, signals and communications, traction power, shops and yards, 23    depots, service vehicles, passenger station projects, as needed to 24    comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act, Staten Island railway 25    and authority bus company projects; and (b) may be (i) pledged by the 26    authority as security for the payment of principal and interest on bonds
27    issued after July first, two thousand eighteen to finance capital 28    projects that meet the criteria identified in paragraph (a) of this 29    subdivision, including bonds issued to refund such bonds and (ii) used 30    for payment of principal and interest on such bonds, funding of reserves 31    required in connection with such bonds, and the payment of costs of 32    issuance related to such bonds. To the extent moneys in the transit 33    infrastructure improvement account have been pledged by the authority to 34    secure the payment of principal and interest on bonds as herein
35    provided, moneys deposited into the New York city dedicated personal 36    income tax surcharge fund shall first be deposited into the transit 37    infrastructure account to the extent necessary to make payments pursuant 38    to paragraph (b) of this subdivision. After making such payments, moneys

45    rights hereby vested in the metropolitan transportation authority to 46    fulfill the terms of any agreements made with bondholders pursuant to 47    this title, or in any way impair the rights and remedies of such holders 48    or the security for such bonds until such bonds are fully paid and 49    discharged. Nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to 50    restrict the right of the state to amend, modify, repeal or otherwise
51    alter statutes imposing or relating to the taxes payable to the New York 52    city transitional finance authority pursuant to section thirteen hundred 53    thirteen of the tax law, but such taxes shall in all events continue to 54    be so payable so long as any such taxes are imposed. Nothing in this 55    section shall be deemed to obligate the state to make any additional

1 payments or impose any taxes to satisfy the debt service obligations of 2 the metropolitan transportation authority.

3 5. Moneys in the low-income resident reduced fare account shall be 4 used to fund the half-fare rate program for low-income residents of the 5 city of New York pursuant to subdivision nine of section twelve hundred 6 five of this article and may be used for payment of the reasonable oper-
7 ating costs incurred by the New York city transit authority for the 20 sufficient to satisfy the requirements of any debt service incurred in 21 such calendar year as a result of obligations issued and secured pursu-

22 ant to paragraph b of subdivision three of this section, and the moneys 23 in the low-income resident reduced fare account are insufficient to 24 satisfy the total needs of the low-income resident reduced fare program 25 established pursuant to subdivision nine of section twelve hundred five 26 of this article, the mayor of the city of New York, or such mayor's 27 designee, may direct the metropolitan transportation authority to trans-
28 fer a specified amount of moneys from the transit infrastructure 29 improvement account to the low-income resident reduced fare account; and

34 calendar year, the mayor of the city of New York, or such mayor's desig-

45 then to pay the authority's operating expenses not otherwise provided 46 for, then to a dedicated personal income tax surcharge fund pursuant to 47 subsection (d) of section thirteen hundred four-E of the tax law in the 48 amount provided for in such section, and then pursuant to the authori-49 ty's agreements with the city, which agreements shall require the 50 authority to transfer the balance of such taxes not required to meet 51 contractual or other obligations of the authority to the city as 52 frequently as practicable.
