AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to the removal of all distinctive markings and affixed lights from a police vehicle prior to decommissioning and sale

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 21-a of section 375 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 112 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:

21-a. In any case where a New York state police or New York city, Albany, Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse or Yonkers police department vehicle is painted a distinctive color which would designate it in the public's view as such a state or city police vehicle, the purchaser of such vehicle shall cause the color of its paint to be altered [~~and any designated markings to be removed~~] within fifteen days of registration.

§ 2. Section 375 of the vehicle and traffic law is amended by adding a new subdivision 52 to read as follows:

52. No police vehicle owned by the state, a public authority, a county, town, city or village shall be sold unless, prior to such sale, such vehicle is decommissioned and any distinctive markings and affixed lights which would designate it in the public's view as such a police vehicle have been removed. The commissioner of the division of criminal justice services, in consultation with the commissioner, shall promulgate rules and regulations determining the specifications for decommissioning police vehicles and for the removal of such distinctive markings and affixed lights prior to sale.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law and shall apply to all police vehicles sold on and after such date. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized and directed to be made and completed on or before such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [~~-~~] is old law to be omitted.
