12 (b) "Hybrid-electric vehicle" shall mean any passenger vehicle which 13 draws propulsion from both an internal combustion engine (or heat engine

15 regenerative vehicle braking system that recovers waste energy to charge 16 such energy storage device.

17 2. No person shall allow or permit the engine of a passenger vehicle 18 to idle for more than three consecutive minutes when the passenger vehi-

1 (b) regulations adopted by a federal, state or local agency having 2 jurisdiction require the maintenance of a specific temperature for 3 passenger comfort, in which case the idling time may be increased to the 4 extent necessary to comply with such regulations;

5 (c) a hybrid-electric vehicle is idling for the purpose of providing 6 energy for the battery or other form of energy storage recharging;

7 (d) the ambient air temperature is 32 degrees Fahrenheit (0 degrees
8 Celsius) or less;

9 (e) when operation of the engine is required for the purpose of main-

11 3. This section shall not apply to the operation of authorized emer-12 gency vehicles, as defined by section one hundred one of the vehicle and 13 traffic law and other emergency vehicles and equipment while performing

15 4. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to preempt any provision of 16 local law, including, but not limited to section 24-163 of the adminis-
17 trative code of the city of New York, provided that the provisions of 18 such local law are at least as stringent as the provisions of this 19 section.

20 5. Any person who knowingly or intentionally violates any provision of 21 this section shall, upon the first finding of such a violation, be

28 diction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invali-29 date the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to 30 the clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part thereof directly 31 involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been 32 rendered.

33 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after 34 it shall have become a law.
