will provide the requisite training required for job placement in businesses and industries within the region that lack the necessary work-3 force or that are seeking employees with new skills in an area where job 4 openings currently exist or where job growth is anticipated in the near

- 4. To be eligible to receive a grant, a community college must also demonstrate that such community college: (a) has partnered with regional businesses or industries to determine areas where jobs are available or are anticipated to become available and a skilled workforce is needed; and (b) consults with the department of labor to target unemployed individuals who shall be given priority placement into such training programs or workforce development programs.
- 5. Upon successful placement of training program or workforce develop-14 ment program participants, local businesses or industries partnering with community colleges pursuant to this grant program shall reimburse the community colleges for one-third of the cost of such employee training.
 - 6. Community colleges may seek to provide on-site training or may seek to have participants trained on job sites.
 - 7. The community college, in consultation with local business or industry, shall determine the length of such training or workforce development program, provided that such program shall provide competency for a particular business or industry need. Successful completion of such programs shall be signified by the receipt of a certificate of completion, however, training or workforce development programs need not lead to degrees or official certifications provided by the department or the department of state.
- 8. Beginning in the year two thousand twenty and thereafter, pursuant 28 29 to appropriation and based on the availability of funds, community colleges shall be eligible to receive an additional fifty thousand 30 dollars in any year that more than fifty percent of all grant program 31 32 participants trained become employed.
- 33 9.
