AN ACT to amend the insurance law, in relation to permitting insurance brokers to engage in certain activities with respect to property and casualty insurance in New York

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subsection (k) of section 2117 of the insurance law, as 2 added by chapter 64 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
3 (k)(1) Notwithstanding subsection (a) of this section, any insurance
4 broker licensed under subparagraph (A) of paragraph one of subsection 5 (b) of section two thousand one hundred four of this article with 6 respect to life insurance or annuities, ~~[or]~~ subparagraph (A) or (B) of 7 paragraph one of subsection (b) of such section with respect to accident
8 and health insurance, or subparagraph (B) of this paragraph with respect 9 to property/casualty insurance may engage in the activities specified in 10 paragraph two of this subsection with respect to an alien insurer not 11 authorized to do an insurance business in this state, provided that:
12 (A) the activities relate to a policy or contract of group life, group
13 annuity, ~~[or]~~ group accident and health insurance, or property/casualty
14 insurance where the policyholder or proposed policyholder is a multina-
15 tional entity resident outside the United States, the policy or contract 16 covers the multinational entity's liabilities, properties, employees and 17 their dependents, and the liabilities arise, or the properties and 18 employees reside outside of the United States, except that the policy or 19 contract may provide coverage to employees who are temporarily inside
20 the United States;
21 (B) the policy or contract shall not be underwritten or negotiated in 22 this state or issued or delivered in the United States;
23 (C) the alien insurer is authorized to transact the kinds of insurance 24 business in the jurisdictions where the policies or contracts will be

1 issued or delivered and the policies or contracts are issued in conform-
2 ance with the laws of such jurisdictions;

3 (D) before engaging in any of the activities specified in paragraph 4 two of this subsection, the licensed insurance broker provides written 5 notice to the multinational entity that the alien insurer is not 6 licensed in or authorized to do business in this state; the policy or 7 contract is not protected by the New York state guaranty funds; the 8 policy or contract has not been approved by the superintendent; and the 9 policy or contract may not be subject to all of the laws of this state;

10 (E) the alien insurer shall not maintain any office in this state; and

11 (F) except as specifically provided in this section, the licensed 12 insurance broker shall not call attention to the alien insurer by any 13 advertisement or public announcement in this state.

14 (2) Subject to paragraph one of this subsection, the licensed insur-
15 ance broker may engage in this state in only the following activities
16 with respect to the alien insurer:

17 (A) provide information to the multinational entity with respect to a 18 policy or contract of group life, group annuity, ~~[ex]~~ group accident and 19 health insurance, or a property/casualty insurance policy issued or 20 delivered or that will be issued or delivered by the alien insurer;

21 (B) meet and discuss insurance needs with the multinational entity, 22 including providing information directly to the entity in person or 23 otherwise about the policies or contracts offered by the alien insurer; 24 and facilitating introductions with the multinational entity's human 25 resources and benefits manager in each country in which the multina-
26 tional entity has employee benefit needs;

27 (C) refer the multinational entity to the alien insurer and provide 28 information to the multinational entity about the alien insurer;

29 (D) respond to requests for information by representatives of the 30 multinational entity concerning quotes and any other specific terms and 31 conditions of a group life, group annuity, ~~[ex]~~ group accident and 32 health insurance, or property/casualty insurance policy or contract 33 being negotiated in the jurisdiction where the policy or contract will 34 be issued or delivered by the alien insurer;

35 (E) provide information concerning renewals of existing policies or 36 contracts of group life, group annuity, ~~[ex]~~ group accident and health
37 insurance, or a property/casualty insurance policy issued by the alien 38 insurer; and

39 (F) manage the employee benefits program of the multinational entity, 40 including aggregating and reporting employee benefits and financial 41 information about the program.

42 (3) Any activity in which a licensed insurance broker engages with 43 respect to an alien insurer pursuant to this subsection shall be deemed 44 to be included within the meaning of "any other transaction of business"
45 for the purposes of section one thousand two hundred thirteen of this 46 article.

47 (4) For purposes of this subsection:

48 (A) "multinational entity" shall mean an institution that is a member
49 of a multinational group of institutions operating globally where: (i) 50 at least one institution in the group is formed under the laws of the 51 United States or has significant operations in the United States; and 52 (ii) at least one institution in the group has offices outside the 53 United States; and

54 (B) "group of institutions" shall mean a parent corporation and its 55 subsidiaries.

56 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
