1	(a) a franchisee is granted the right to engage in the business of
2	offering, selling or distributing goods or services pursuant to a
3	marketing plan or system prescribed in substantial part by a franchisor;
4	(b) operation of the franchisee's business pursuant to such plan or
5	system is substantially related to the franchisor's trademark, service
6 7	mark, trade name, logotype, advertising or other commercial symbol
8	designating the franchisor or its affiliate; and
o 9	(c) the franchisee pays or is required to pay, directly or indirectly, a franchise fee.
10	3. "Franchise fee" shall mean a fee or charge for the right to enter
11	into or maintain a franchise, including any payment for goods or 12^{11}	services, but not including:
13	(a) payment, at a bona fide wholesale price, for a reasonable quantity
14^{13}	of inventory;
15
16	(b) payment of a reasonable service charge to the issuer of a credit or debit card by a person accepting or honoring such a card; and
17	(c) payment at fair market value for a reasonable quantity of real
18	estate, fixtures, equipment or other tangible personal property to be
19	utilized in and necessary for the operation of a franchised business.
20	4. "Franchisee" shall mean a person to whom a franchise is granted.
21	5. "Franchisor" shall mean a person who grants or has granted a fran-
22	chise.
23	6. "Good cause" shall mean the failure by a party to a franchise to
24	correct a default of a material provision of the franchise within thirty
25	days of receipt of a written notice from the other party which specifies
26	the default, or within forty-eight hours of receipt of a written notice
27	which specifies a default constituting a clear and present danger to the 28	public health, welfare or safety, and in either instance describes the 29	corrective action required to be taken. Such term shall also include the 30	complete withdrawal of the franchisor from conducting business in this
31	state.
32	7. "Good faith" shall mean honesty in fact and the observance of
33	reasonable standards of fair dealing in the trade.
34	8. "Outlet" shall mean a place of business, whether temporary or
35	permanent, fixed or mobile, from which goods or services are offered for
36	sale.
37	9. "Trade secret" shall mean information, including a formula,
38	pattern, compilation, program, devise, method, technique or process,
39	which:

41	being generally known to and not being readily ascertainable by proper
42	means by other persons who can obtain economic value from its disclosure
43	or use; and
44	(b) is the subject of efforts which are reasonable under the circum-
45	stances to maintain its secrecy.
46	§ 698-b. Procedural fairness. 1. The provisions of this article shall
47	apply to any franchise any part of the performance of which is to occur
48	in this state, or to be operated in whole or in part in this state and
49	to the parties to such franchise. These provisions shall not be waived,
50	and their application to a franchise or a party thereto shall not be
51	avoided, in whole or in part by agreement or by conduct, except pursuant
52	to a settlement of a bona fide dispute.
53	2. Any party to a franchise may commence a civil action or, if agreed
54	to by the parties, initiate an arbitration proceeding for a violation of 55 any provision of this article.

No franchisee shall be deprived of the application of the 1 3. provisions of this article by any provision of a franchise which desig-2 3 nates the law of another jurisdiction as governing the provisions of 4 such franchise, or designating a venue outside of this state for the 5 resolution of disputes. б 4. Provisions of a franchise providing for liquidated damages, 7 confessions of judgment or like provisions shall be unenforceable. 8 5. The provisions of this article are declaratory of the public policy 9 and law of the state of New York. To the extent permitted by the consti-10 tution of the United States and of this state, this article shall apply 11 to franchises granted, transferred, renewed, amended, replaced or in existence after the effective date of this article. A provision of a 12 13 franchise designating the law of the state of New York as governing the 14 franchise, or by which the franchise is to be interpreted or construed shall be construed as incorporating the law of this state as in effect 15 16 from time to time during the term of the franchise. 17 § 698-c. Private right of action. Any party to a franchise who is injured or likely to be injured by a violation or impending violation of 18 19 this article or any rules or regulations of the Federal Trade Commission 20 shall have a cause of action for rescission of the franchise, damages, 21 injunctive relief or other appropriate relief. The prevailing party may recover its costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, in any such 22 action or proceeding. The court shall presume the existence of irrepara-23 ble harm based on a violation of the provisions of this article or of 24 25 any rule or regulation of the Federal Trade Commission, and may award 26 preliminary injunctive relief without bond or other financial security. 27 § 698-d. Duty of good faith. Every franchise shall include an implied duty upon all parties to exercise good faith in the performance and 28 29 enforcement of the terms of the franchise. Such duty of good faith obli-30 gates each party to a franchise, when making a decision or exercising a 31 reserved power or discretion which directly affects the interests of 32 another party or parties to the franchise, to give due and equal regard to the interests of such other party or parties to the franchises that 33 34 are likely to be affected. 35 § 698-e. Duty of competence. Unless a franchisor represents that it has greater skill or knowledge, or conspicuously disclaims that it has 36 such skill or knowledge, the franchisor shall, in its undertaking with 37 the franchisee, be required to exercise the skill and knowledge normally 38 possessed by franchisors in good standing in similar communities or 39 trade areas. The provisions of this section shall not be waived or qual-40 41 ified by agreement or by conduct; provided, however, that the franchisor 42 may by written agreement particularly define the nature and scope of its 43 skill and knowledge, and of its undertaking with the franchisee. 44 § 698-f. Negotiated changes permitted. A franchisor, who has lawfully 45 delivered an offering to a prospective franchisee, may negotiate the 46 terms of a franchise with such prospective franchisee, and may execute a 47 franchise containing negotiated terms which are different from the 48 initial offering. § 698-g. Independent sourcing. 1. Except as otherwise provided in 49 subdivision two of this section, a franchisee may obtain equipment, 50 51 fixtures, supplies and services used in the establishment and operation 52 of a franchised business from sources of the franchisee's own choosing, 53 provided that such goods and services shall meet reasonable standards, 54 as to their nature and quality, as promulgated by the franchisor. 55 2. Subdivision one of this section shall not apply to a requirement by

56 a franchisor that reasonable quantities of inventory goods or services

1	(including display and sample items) be obtained from the franchisor or
2	its affiliate, if such goods or services are a central feature of the
3	franchise business and:
4	(a) are actually manufactured or produced by the franchisor or its
5	affiliate; or
6	(b) are manufactured solely on behalf of the franchisor or its affil-
7	iate and incorporate a trade secret owned by the franchisor or its
8	affiliate.
9	§ 698-h. Termination and non-renewal. No franchisor shall terminate or
10	refuse to renew a franchise without good cause.
11	§ 698-i. Transfer of a franchise. 1. A franchisee shall have the right
12	to transfer the franchised business and the franchise to another person
13	who meets the franchisor's current reasonable, essential and nondiscri-
14	minatory standards for new franchisees or transferees. A franchisor may
15	not withhold its consent to a transfer of a franchise without good
16	cause.
17	2. A franchisor may exercise a right of first refusal in relation to a
18	proposed transfer, if the franchisor has reserved such right in the
19	franchise. However, a right of first refusal shall not be invoked more
20	than thirty days after receipt of the franchisee's request for consent
21	to the transfer. Such right of first refusal may not be exercised if
22	the result would be to leave the franchisor holding a partial ownership
23	interest in the franchise or franchisee. A franchisor shall only base
24	its decision to exercise a right of first refusal in a proposed transfer
25	of a franchise, upon the merits of the proposed transfer and the partic-
26	ular circumstances of the proposed transfer.
27	3. A franchisor may require as conditions of a transfer that:
28	(a) the transferee successfully completes a reasonable, essential and
29	nondiscriminatory training program;
30	(b) a reasonable transfer fee be paid to reimburse the franchisor for
31	its reasonable and actual expenses directly related to the transfer; and
32	(c) the franchisee pay or make reasonable provisions to pay any amount
33	due the franchisor or its affiliate.
34	4. A franchisor shall not withhold its consent to a public offering by
35	a franchisee of its securities, provided that the franchisee or owners
36	of the franchise retain more than fifty percent of the voting power in
37	the franchise. A franchisor shall not withhold its consent to a pooling
38	of interests or exchange of assets of its existing franchisees.
39	5. A franchisee may assign its interest in its franchise for the unex-
40	pired term of the franchise without any change in the terms of such
41	franchise. Furthermore, the franchisor shall not require the franchisee
42	or the transferee to enter into any new or different terms during the 43	unexpired term of the franchise.
44	6. For the purposes of this section the following shall not constitute
45	a transfer and a franchisor shall not interfere with:
46	(a) the succession to ownership or management of a franchise upon the 47	death or disability of a franchisee, or an owner, officer or director of
48	a franchisee, by the spouse, children, partners or fellow shareholders
49	of such deceased or disabled person;
50	(b) incorporation by a franchisee;
51	(c) transfer of interests within an existing group of owners of a
52	franchisee when such transfers do not result in a change in the control-
53	ling interest in the franchise;
54	(d) transfers of less than a controlling interest in the franchise to
55	the spouse or children of the franchisee, or owners, officers or direc-

56 tors of the franchisee;

(e) transfers of less than a controlling interest in the franchise 1 2 pursuant to an employee stock ownership plan, employee incentive compen-3 sation plan or deferred benefit plan; 4 (f) a grant or retention of a security interest in the franchise, the 5 franchised business or its assets, or an ownership interest in the franб chisee, provided that the security agreement creates an obligation on 7 the part of the secured party, which is enforceable by the franchisor, 8 to give notice to the franchisor simultaneously with notice to the fran-9 chisee of the secured party's intention to foreclose on the collateral, 10 and granting a reasonable opportunity to redeem the interest of the 11 secured party and release the secured party's lien upon the franchise and the franchised business by satisfying the franchisee's obligations 12 13 to the secured party; or 14 (g) the franchisee's use of management consultants or hiring of a professional manager. 15 16 7. Subject to the provisions of paragraph (f) of subdivision six of this section, no franchisor shall prevent a franchisee, who has trans-17 ferred the franchise, from retaining or foreclosing upon a security 18 19 interest in one or more assets transferred, including the franchise, 20 created to secure the obligations of the transferee to the transferor. 21 8. Every franchisee shall give its franchisor not less than thirty days' notice of a proposed transfer and upon request shall advise the 22 franchisor, in writing, of the ownership interests of all persons hold-23 ing or claiming an equitable or beneficial interest in the franchise or 24 25 the franchisee. 26 9. No franchisor shall transfer its interest in a franchise unless it 27 makes reasonable provision for the performance by the transferee of its obligations pursuant to the franchise. A franchisor shall provide its 28 29 franchisees with notice of the proposed transfer at such time as such 30 disclosure would be required pursuant to applicable securities and 31 exchange laws, if securities of the franchisor were publicly traded. 10. A franchisor shall be objectively reasonable in determining to 32 33 withhold its consent to a proposed transfer of a franchise. Every trans-34 fer shall be deemed approved thirty days after the franchisee submits the proposed transfer for consent to the franchisor, unless the franchi-35 sor shall earlier provide written notice of its disapproval, or exercise 36 of right of first refusal. All such notices stating the bases of disap-37 38 proval shall be privileged against claims of defamation. 11. No franchisor shall discriminate against a proposed transferee of 39 a franchise on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, 40 41 or disability. 42 12. As a condition of a transfer of a franchise, no franchisor shall 43 obligate a franchisee to undertake other obligations or forgo other rights outside the scope of the franchise proposed to be transferred, or 44 45 to enter into release of claims broader in scope than a counterpart 46 release of claims offered by the franchisor to the franchisee. 47 13. No franchisor shall enforce against the transferor of a franchise after a transfer, any covenant in the transferred franchise prohibiting 48 the transferor from engaging in any lawful occupation or enterprise. 49 However, the provisions of this subdivision shall not limit the right of 50 51 the franchisor to enforce contractual covenants prohibiting the transferor from exploiting the franchisor's trade secrets or intellectual prop-52 53 erty rights. 54 14. For the purposes of this section: (a) "Transfer" shall mean any change in ownership or control of a 55

56 franchise, franchised business or franchisee.

1	(b) "Franchise" shall include franchisee as appropriate in context.
2	§ 698-j. Anti-competitive covenants. No franchisor shall prohibit or
3	enforce a prohibition against a franchisee from engaging in any lawful
4	business at any location after expiration, termination for good cause or
5	transfer of a franchise, unless not less than ten days before such expi-
6	ration, termination or transfer the franchisor offers in writing to
7	purchase the franchised business for its fair market value as a going
8	concern. Such an offer may be conditioned upon ascertainment of the fair
9	market value by an impartial appraiser. The provisions of this section
10	shall not prohibit enforcement of provisions of a franchise requiring a
11	franchisee, after expiration or termination of the franchise to:
12	1. Alter the appearance of the premises and the manner of operation of 13	the formerly franchised business to avoid the likelihood of confusion as 14	to the affiliation of the business with its former franchisor or the 15	origin of the goods or services it offers; or
16	2. Cease and refrain from using a trade secret of the franchisor or
17	its affiliate.
18	§ 698-k. Freedom of association. 1. No franchisor shall directly or
19	indirectly inhibit its franchisees from forming an association or from 20	associating with other franchisees for any lawful purpose. Nor shall any
21	franchisor penalize, in any way, its franchisees for such activities.
22	2. Every franchisor which has more than five hundred franchises or
23	more than three hundred franchisees, within the United States, shall
24 25	have a duty to bargain in good faith with an organization of its fran- chisees which represents in general or on a specific issue or set of
25 26	issues a majority of its franchisees in this state.
20 27	§ 698-1. Encroachment. 1. Subject to the provisions of subdivision
28	three of this section, no franchisor shall place or license another to 29	place a new outlet in an unreasonable proximity to an established fran-
30	chised outlet which offers goods or services identified by the same
31	trademark as the new outlet, if the intent or probable effect of estab-
32	lishing the new outlet is to cause a diminution of gross sales by the
33	existing outlet of more than ten percent in the twelve months following
34	the establishment of the new outlet.
35	2. A franchisee injured or likely to be injured by violation of the
36	provisions of this section may enjoin the violation or pending violation
37	and recover damages caused by the violation, which may include a reason-
38	able estimation of the plaintiff's profits lost as a consequence of the 39	violation, and other appropriate relief.
40	3. The provisions of this section shall not apply to the establishment
