

STATE OF NEW YORK

1069

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 6, 2017

Introduced by Sen. KLEIN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to employment agencies; and to amend a chapter of the laws of 2016, amending the general business law relating to employment agencies, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 8102 and A. 10672, in relation to the effectiveness thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph b of subdivision 2 of section 173 of the general 2 business law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2016, amending the 3 general business law relating to employment agencies, as proposed in 4 legislative bills numbers S. 8102 and A. 10672, is amended to read as 5 follows:

6 b. The application for a license shall be accompanied by samples or 7 accurate facsimiles of each and every form which the applicant for a 8 license will require applicants for employment to execute, and such 9 forms must be approved by the commissioner before a license may be 10 issued. The commissioner shall approve any such forms which fairly and 11 clearly represent contractual terms and conditions between the proposed 12 employment agency and applicants for employment, such as are permitted 13 by this article. [~~The commissioner shall determine in his or her~~

14 ~~discretion, which languages to provide, in addition to English, based on~~ 15 ~~the size of the state population that speaks each language and any other~~ 16 ~~factor the commissioner deems relevant. All forms shall be made avail-~~ 17 ~~able to employment agencies in such a manner as determined by the~~ 18 ~~commissioner.]~~

19 The commissioner shall make all forms required pursuant 20 to this article available to employment agencies in languages other than 21 English, including any other language that the commissioner determines, 22 in his or her discretion, based on the size of the New York population that speaks each language and any other factor that the commissioner deems relevant. An employment agency shall not be penalized for errors or omissions in the non-English portions of any forms provided by the commissioner.

§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 174 of the general business law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2016, amending the general business law relating to employment agencies, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 8102 and A. 10672, is amended to read as follows:

1. Upon the receipt of an application for a license, the commissioner shall cause the name and address of the applicant, the name under which the employment agency is to be conducted, and the street and number of the place where the agency is to be conducted, to be posted on the commissioner's website, as well as in a conspicuous place in his public office. Such agency shall be used exclusively as an employment agency and for no other purpose, except as hereinafter provided. The commissioner shall investigate or cause to be investigated the character and responsibility of the applicant and agency manager and shall examine or cause to be examined the premises designated in such application as the place in which it is proposed to conduct such agency.

The commissioner shall require all applicants for licenses and agency managers to be fingerprinted. Such fingerprints shall be submitted to the division of criminal justice services for a state criminal history record check, as defined in subdivision one of section three thousand thirty-five of the education law, and may be submitted to the federal bureau of investigation for a national criminal history record check. The criminal history information, if any, received by the ~~[department of labor]~~ commissioner shall be considered in accordance with the provisions of article twenty-three-A of the correction law and subdivisions fifteen and sixteen of section two hundred ninety-six of the executive law. A reasonable time before making a determination on the application pursuant to this subdivision, the ~~[department]~~ commissioner shall provide the applicant with a copy of the applicant's criminal history information, if any. Where such criminal history information is provided, the ~~[department]~~ commissioner shall also provide a copy of article twenty-three-A of the correction law, and inform such applicant of his or her right to seek correction of any incorrect information contained in such criminal history information pursuant to the regulations and procedures established by the division of criminal justice services.

§ 3. Section 181 of the general business law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2016, amending the general business law relating to employment agencies, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 8102 and A. 10672, is amended to read as follows:

§ 181. Contracts, statements of terms and conditions, and receipts. It shall be the duty of every employment agency to give to each applicant for employment:

1. A true copy of every contract executed between such agency and such applicant, which shall have printed on it or attached to it a statement setting forth in a clear and concise manner the provisions of sections one hundred eighty-five, and one hundred eighty-six of this article.

2. (a) ~~[Each contract]~~ For class "C" theatrical employment: information as to the name and address of the person to whom the applicant is to apply for such employment, the kind of service to be performed, the anticipated rate of wages or compensation, the agency's fee for the applicant based on such anticipated wages or compensation, whether such employment is permanent or temporary, the name and address of the person authorizing the hiring of such applicant, and the cost of transportation

1 if the services are required outside of the city, town or village where 2 such agency is located. If the job is a conditionally fee-paid job, the 3 conditions under which the applicant will be required to pay a fee shall 4 be clearly set forth in a separate agreement in ten-point type signed by 5 the job applicant.

6 (b) for all other employment, including class "A" and "A-1" employ-7 ment, each contract shall include, but not be limited to, the following: 8 information as to the name and address of the person to whom the appli-9 cant is to apply for such employment, the name, the address, the mailing 10 address, and the telephone number of the employer; the address or 11 addresses of employment, the kind of service to be performed; the antic-12 ipated rate of wages or compensation; the anticipated hours of work per 13 day and number of days to be worked per week; the agency's fee for the 14 applicant based on such anticipated wages or compensation; any provision 15 to the employee, and costs associated with that provision including 16 housing, health insurance, healthcare, sick leave, holidays and retire-17 ment benefits; whether such employment is permanent or temporary, the 18 anticipated period of employment, the name and address of the person 19 authorizing the hiring of such applicant; and the cost of transportation 20 if the services are required outside of the city, town or village where 21 such agency is located. If the job is a conditionally fee-paid job, the 22 conditions under which the applicant will be required to pay a fee shall 23 be clearly set forth in a separate agreement in ten-point type signed by 24 the job applicant.

25 ~~[(b)]~~ 3. (a) This paragraph shall apply to all classes of employment 26 except for class "C" theatrical employment. The employment agency shall 27 provide to each applicant, a separate document accompanying each 28 contract summarizing the terms and conditions of the contract [~~in~~ 29 ~~commonly understood terms~~]. This document shall be entitled "terms and 30 conditions" and shall include the language that the document is not a 31 contract and that such document is not legally binding. [~~The commission-~~ 32 ~~er shall promulgate rules and regulations determining what information~~ 33 ~~shall be included in the terms and conditions provided by an agency to~~ 34 ~~an applicant]~~ The terms and conditions shall be provided in plain and 35 commonly understood terms and language which shall aid the job applicant 36 in understanding the transaction and such document shall limit the use 37 of technical terms whenever possible.

38 (b) The terms and conditions shall conform to any templates estab-
39 lished by the commissioner and be made available to employment agencies 40 in such manner as determined by the commissioner. In developing such 41 templates, the commissioner shall afford the public an opportunity to 42 submit comments on such templates.

43 (c) The commissioner may promulgate rules and regulations necessary to 44 carry out the provisions of this section.

45 ~~[(c) When a job applicant identifies as his or her primary language a~~ 46 ~~language for which a template is not available from the commissioner,~~ 47 ~~the employment agency shall comply with this subdivision by providing~~ 48 ~~that employee an English-language statement.]~~

49 (d) An employment agency shall not be penalized for errors or omis-50 sions in the non-English portions of any [~~notice~~] templates provided by 51 the commissioner.

52 ~~[3-]~~ 4. A receipt for any fee, deposit, consideration, or payment 53 which such agency receives from such applicant, which shall have printed 54 or written on it the name of the applicant, the name and address of the 55 employment agency, the date and amount of such fee, deposit, consider-56 ation or payment or portion thereof for which the receipt is given, the

1 purpose for which it was paid, and the signature of the person receiving 2 such payment. If the applicant for employment has been recruited from 3 outside the state for domestic or household employment the receipt shall 4 have printed on it, or attached to it, a copy of section one hundred 5 eighty-four of this article. The receipt shall also include, immediate-6 ly above the place for signature of the person receiving payment, set 7 off in a box and printed in bold capital letters, the following state-8 ment: "An employment agency may not charge you, the job applicant, a fee 9 before referring you to a job that you accept. If you pay a fee before 10 accepting a job or pay a fee that otherwise violates the law, you may 11 demand a refund, which shall be repaid within seven days".

12 ~~[4-]~~ 5. The completed original or duplicate-original copy of each such 13 contract, statement of terms and conditions, receipts, and any other 14 documents given to the applicant shall be retained by every employment 15 agency for three years following the date on which the contract is 16 executed or the payment is made, and shall be made available for 17 inspection by the commissioner or his duly authorized agent or inspec-18 tor, upon his request. Notwithstanding the other provisions of such 19 contracts, the monetary consideration to be paid by the applicant shall 20 not exceed the fee ceiling provided in subdivision eight of section one 21 hundred eighty-five of this article.

22 § 4. Subdivisions 2, 4 and 5 of section 189 of the general business 23 law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2016, amending the general 24 business law relating to employment agencies, as proposed in legislative 25 bills numbers S. 8102 and A. 10672, are amended to read as follows:

26 2. To effectuate the purposes of this article, article nineteen-B of 27 the labor law and sections 37.01, 37.03 and 37.05 of the arts and 28 cultural affairs law, the commissioner or any duly authorized agent or 29 inspector designated by such commissioner, shall have authority to 30 inspect the premises, registers, contract forms, completed contracts, 31 statements of terms and conditions, receipt books, application forms, 32 referral forms, reference forms, reference reports and financial records 33 of fees charged and refunds made of each employment agency, and any 34 other record that the employment agency is required to maintain pursuant 35 to this article, which are essential to the operation of such agency, 36 and of each applicant for an employment agency license, as frequently as 37 necessary to ensure compliance with this article and such sections. In 38 no event shall any employment agency be inspected less frequently than 39 once every eighteen months. Inspections may consist of in-person visits 40 to employment agencies or the review of records as described in this 41 subdivision or both. The commissioner shall also have authority to 42 subpoena records and witnesses or otherwise to conduct investigations of 43 any employer or other person where he or she has reasonable grounds for 44 believing that such employer or person is violating or has conspired or 45 is conspiring with an employment agency to violate this article or such 46 sections.

47 4. Complaints against any such licensed or unlicensed person may be 48 made orally or in writing to the commissioner, or be sent in an affida-49 vit form without appearing in person, and may be made by recognized 50 employment agencies, trade associations, or others. The commissioner may 51 hold a hearing on a complaint with the powers provided by section one 52 hundred seventy-four of this article. If a hearing is held, reasonable 53 notice thereof, not less than five days, shall be given in writing to 54 said person by serving upon the person either personally, by mail, or by 55 leaving the same with the person in charge of his office, a concise 56 statement of the facts constituting the complaint, and the hearing shall

1 commence before the commissioner with reasonable speed but in no event 2 later than two weeks from the date of the filing of the complaint. The 3 commissioner when investigating any matters pertaining to the granting, 4 issuing, transferring, renewing, revoking, suspending or cancelling of 5 any license is authorized in his discretion to take such testimony as 6 may be necessary on which to base official action. When taking such 7 testimony he may subpoena witnesses and also direct the production
8 before him of necessary and material books and papers. A daily calendar 9 of all hearings shall be kept by the commissioner and shall be posted in 10 a conspicuous place in his public office for at least one day before the 11 date of such hearings. The commissioner shall render his decision within 12 thirty days from the time the matter is finally submitted to him. The 13 commissioner shall keep a record of all such complaints and hearings.
14 The office of new Americans shall, pursuant to section ninety-four-b of 15 the executive law, receive complaints~~[, attempt to mediate such~~ 16 ~~complaints,~~] and where appropriate refer such complaints to the attorney 17 general or other federal, state or local agency authorized by law to 18 take action on such complaint.

19 5. Upon a finding that the licensed person or his agent, employee or 20 anyone acting on his behalf is guilty of violating any provision of this 21 article or is not a person of good character and responsibility, the 22 commissioner may suspend or revoke the license of such licensed person.
23 Any employment agency found to have violated any provision of this arti-24 cle shall be subject, for the first offense, to a civil penalty not to 25 exceed one thousand dollars per violation, and, for each subsequent 26 offense within six years of such previous offense, to a civil penalty, 27 not to exceed five thousand dollars per violation. ~~[When]~~ Upon notice 28 of violation of this article or when it is determined that there has 29 been a violation of this article by an employment agency, the commis-30 sioner ~~[shall]~~ may provide the employment agency with a specific time 31 period for such employment agency to cure or correct such violation or 32 take other ameliorative action as directed by the commissioner, the 33 successful completion of which shall prevent the imposition of penalties 34 on the employment agency for such violation. Whenever such commissioner 35 shall suspend or revoke the license of any employment agency, or shall 36 levy a fine against any agency, said determination shall be subject to 37 judicial review in proceedings brought pursuant to article seventy-eight 38 of the civil practice law and rules. Whenever an employment agency's 39 license is revoked, another license or agency manager permit shall not 40 be issued within three years from the date of such revocation to said 41 licensed person or his agency manager or to any person with whom the 42 licensee has been associated in the business of furnishing employment or 43 engagements. Deputy commissioners, or other officials designated to act 44 on behalf of the commissioner, may conduct hearings and act upon appli-45 cations for licenses, and revoke or suspend such licenses, or levy fines 46 against an employment agency.

47 § 5. Section 11 of a chapter of the laws of 2016, amending the general 48 business law relating to employment agencies, as proposed in legislative 49 bills numbers S. 8102 and A. 10672, is amended to read as follows:

50 § 11. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that 51 the amendments to paragraph (b) of subdivision 2 of section 181 of the 52 general business law made by section four of this act shall take effect 53 on the forty-fifth day after it shall have become a law.

54 § 6. This act shall take effect immediately; provided however that 55 sections one, two, three, and four of this act shall take effect on the 56 same date and in the same manner as a chapter of the laws of 2016,

1 amending the general business law relating to employment agencies, as 2 proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 8102 and A. 10672, takes 3 effect.
