1 A civil action may be commenced by the appropriate claiming authority 2 against a criminal defendant to recover the property which constitutes 3 the proceeds of a crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instru-4 mentality of a crime or the real property instrumentality of a crime or 5 to recover a money judgment in an amount equivalent in value to the 6 property which constitutes the proceeds of a crime, the substituted
7 proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a crime, or the real property 8 instrumentality of a crime. A civil action may be commenced by the 9 appropriate claiming authority against an elected official to recover a 10 money judgment which constitutes the proceeds of a violation of the 11 public trust. A civil action may be commenced against a non-criminal 12 defendant to recover the property which constitutes the proceeds of a 13 crime, the substituted proceeds of a crime, an instrumentality of a 14 crime, or the real property instrumentality of a crime provided, howev-
15 er, that a judgment of forfeiture predicated upon clause (A) of subpara-16 graph (iv) of paragraph (b) of subdivision three hereof shall be limited 17 to the amount of the proceeds of the crime. Any action under this arti-
18 cle must be commenced within five years of the commission of the crime 19 and shall be civil, remedial, and in personam in nature and shall not be 20 deemed to be a penalty or criminal forfeiture for any purpose. Except as 21 otherwise specially provided by statute, the proceedings under this 22 article shall be governed by this chapter. An action under this article 23 is not a criminal proceeding and may not be deemed to be a previous 24 prosecution under article forty of the criminal procedure law. An action 25 under this article against an elected official who is not subject to the 26 provisions of article three-B of the retirement and social security law 27 shall not in any way be deemed to impede or impair any rights or privi-
28 leges afforded to such elected official as a member of any public 29 retirement system or retirement plan.

30 § 4. Subdivision 1 of section 1311 of the civil practice law and rules 31 is amended by adding a new paragraph (a-1) to read as follows:

32 (a-1) Actions relating to post-conviction forfeiture crimes involving 33 elected officials. An action relating to a post-conviction forfeiture 34 crime involving an elected official must be grounded upon a conviction 35 of a felony defined in subdivision five-a of section one thousand three 36 hundred ten of this article, or upon criminal activity arising from a 37 common scheme or plan of which such a conviction is a part, or upon a 38 count of an indictment or information alleging a felony which was 39 dismissed at the time of a plea of guilty to a felony in satisfaction of 40 such count. A court may not grant forfeiture until such conviction has 41 occurred. However, an action may be commenced, and a court may grant a 42 provisional remedy provided under this article, prior to such conviction 43 having occurred. An action under this paragraph must be dismissed at any 44 time after sixty days of the commencement of the action unless the 45 conviction upon which the action is grounded has occurred, or an indict-46 ment or information upon which the asserted conviction is to be based is 47 pending in a superior court. An action under this paragraph shall be 48 stayed during the pendency of a criminal action which is related to it; 49 provided, however, that such stay shall not prevent the granting or 50 continuance of any provisional remedy provided under this article or any 51 other provisions of law.

52 § 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
