AN ACT to amend the real property law, in relation to campgrounds

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The real property law is amended by adding a new section 2 233-b to read as follows:
 - § 233-b. Campgrounds. a. Whenever used in this section:
- 1. "Campground" means any parcel or tract of land, including buildings or other structures, where five or more campsites are made available for use as temporary living quarters for recreational, camping, travel or seasonal use.
- 8 2. "Campground owner" means the owner or operator of a campground or 9 an agent of such owner or operator.
- b. A campground owner may remove or cause to be removed from a camp-11 ground any person who:
- 12 1. is not a registered guest or visitor of the campground;
- 13 2. remains on the campground beyond an agreed-upon departure time and 14 date;
- 15 3. defaults in the payment of any lawfully imposed registration or 16 visitor fee or charge;
- 17 4. creates a disturbance that denies other persons their right to
 18 quiet enjoyment of the campground;
- 5. violates any federal, state or local law; or
- 20 6. violates any other lawful regulation promulgated by the campground
- 21 owner and continues in violation for more than twenty-four hours after
- 22 the campground owner has given written notice of such violation and
- 23 directing that such person correct or cease violation of such rule or
- 24 regulation.
