3. Upon conviction of any offense set forth in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of subdivision two of this section, the court shall certify that the convicted person is an animal abuser and shall include the certification in the judgment of conviction and the order of commitment, if any. The court shall provide a copy of the judgment of conviction to the county sheriff within five days of the entry of the judgment of conviction. The court shall also advise the animal abuser of his or her duties under this article. Failure to include the certification in the judgment of conviction or the order of commitment shall not relieve an animal abuser of the obligations imposed by this section.

4. A person convicted of a violation of another state's animal abuse statute as provided in paragraph (f) of subdivision two of this section who subsequently becomes a resident of this state shall, within thirty days of entering the state, register with the central registry.

5. (a) Each registrant shall provide the following information to the county sheriff at the time of registration:

(1) the registrant's name, all aliases used, date of birth, sex, race, height, weight, eye color, driver's license number and current home address and/or expected place of domicile;

(2) a description of any tattoos, scars or other distinguishing features on the animal abuser's body that would assist in identifying the animal abuser;

(3) a description of the offense for which the registrant was convicted, the date of conviction and the sentence imposed; and

(4) any other information deemed pertinent by the central registry.

(b) The central registry shall utilize a standardized registration form in a format developed by the commissioner. Such form shall be written in clear and concise language and shall advise the registrant of his or her duties and obligations under this article. A copy of the registration form shall be provided to the registrant at the time of registration.

6. (a) Following a registrant's initial registration pursuant to the provisions of this section, the registrant shall annually renew his or her registration with the county sheriff prior to December thirty-first of each subsequent calendar year for a period of five years.

(b) If a person has been subsequently convicted of an offense set forth in paragraph (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e) of subdivision two of this section, the registrant shall annually renew his or her registration with the central registry prior to December thirty-first of each subsequent calendar year for a period of ten years.

8. (a) A person required to register pursuant to this section is prohibited from, possessing, adopting, owning, purchasing or exercising control over any companion animal for the period such person is required to register; provided, however, that the court may allow such person to possess, adopt, own, purchase or exercise control over a limited number of companion animals where such person is determined to be a hoarder of companion animals.

(b) All animal shelters and pet dealers shall examine the central registry to confirm that any potential owners are not registrants. No companion animal shall be sold, exchanged or otherwise transferred to an animal abuser listed on the registry.

9. (a) An animal abuser who intentionally or knowingly fails to comply with the registration requirements, or provides false information when

1 complying with the registration requirements set forth in this section,
2 or who violates the provisions of paragraph (a) of subdivision eight of

4 (1) punishable by imprisonment for a period not to exceed four years,
5 or by a fine not to exceed five thousand dollars, or by both such fine
6 and imprisonment for a first offense; and

11 subdivision eight of this section shall be guilty of a violation and 12 subject to a fine not to exceed one thousand dollars. It shall be an 13 affirmative defense that the animal shelter or pet dealer examined the 14 central animal abuser registry and the name of the person to whom they 15 sold or transferred a companion animal did not appear thereon.

16 10. Each county sheriff shall maintain a local registry of animal
17 abusers in the sheriff's jurisdiction.

18 11. A county sheriff shall forward all registration information

31 ness of that official, agency, authorized person or entity, provided
32 that such official, agency, authorized person or entity acted reasonably
33 and in good faith with respect to such registry information.

34 14. The commissioner shall promulgate rules and regulations as may be 35 necessary to effectuate the provisions and intent of this section and to 36 enforce registration, all of which shall have the force and effect of 37 law.

41 pound, animal protective association or animal rescue group which main-
42 tains buildings, structures or other property for the purpose of harbor-
43 ing animals which may be stray, unwanted, lost, abandoned or abused and 44 seeks to find appropriate temporary or permanent homes for such animals.

45 (b) "Pet dealer" shall have the same meaning as such meaning is 46 defined in section four hundred of the agriculture and markets law.

47 16. This section shall be exclusive and shall preempt any local law or 48 ordinance relating to animal abuser registration.

49 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
