1 owning or having the custody, care or control of any pygmy pig in any 2 residential zone.

3 § 17-388 License. A person owning or having the custody, care or 4 control of a pygmy pig shall first pay a fee and obtain an animal 5 license from the department pursuant to chapter one hundred fifteen of 6 the laws of eighteen hundred ninety-four, as amended. No such license 7 shall be issued unless the person keeping or maintaining a pygmy pig in 8 a residential area as a pet or for personal use has submitted: (1) the 9 proof from a licensed veterinarian that the pig has been neutered or 10 spayed; and (2) has been vaccinated against pseudo rabies. Boars, or 11 male pygmy pigs, are to be neutered prior to nine weeks. Gilts, or 12 female pygmy pigs, are to be spayed prior to six months.

13 § 17-389 Additional vaccinations. The commissioner may promulgate
14 rules and regulations to require additional vaccinations for pygmy pigs.

15 § 17-390 Due care. Every person owning or having charge, care, custody 16 or control of any pygmy pig shall exercise due care to prevent the pig 17 from being stray or roaming on any highway, street, and any other public 18 place.

19 § 17-391 Control of animals affected with rabies. a. In accordance 20 with New York City Health Code section 11.27, when a pygmy pig is 21 exposed to the rabies virus, the person who owns, possesses or controls 22 the pig and any other person having knowledge of the exposure shall 23 immediately notify the department by telephone.

24 b. Sections 11.27 and 11.31 of the New York City Health Code shall 25 apply to pygmy pigs. Specifically, if any pygmy pig is exposed to the 26 rabies virus per New York City Health Code section 11.27, it shall be 27 kept isolated, at the owner's expense, in a manner prescribed by the 28 department in a veterinary hospital or other place approved by the 29 department, under daily veterinary supervision, for a period of six 30 months.

31 § 17-392 Violations. Any violation of this subchapter or any of the 32 rules promulgated hereunder shall upon conviction thereof be punishable 33 by a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars nor more than five 34 hundred dollars. Civil violations under this section shall be adjudi-35 cated before the department's administrative tribunal.

36 § 17-393 Rules and regulations. The commissioner of health shall 37 promulgate rules and regulations in accordance with the provisions of 38 this chapter, and such other rules and regulations as may be necessary 39 for the purpose of implementing and carrying out the provisions of this 40 subchapter.

41 § 17-394 Applicability. The provisions of this subchapter shall not 42 supersede any existing lease or rental agreement for any cooperative, 43 condominium or homeowner association which contains a clause prohibiting 44 pets.

45 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
