AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to requiring the joint commission on public ethics to develop and maintain an ethics training course for members and staff of the legislature; and to amend the legislative law, in relation to requiring all members of the legislature to successfully complete the ethics training course on an annual basis

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (m) and subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (n) of 2 subdivision 9 of section 94 of the executive law, paragraph (m) as 3 amended and subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (n) as added by section 6 of 4 part A of chapter 399 of the laws of 2011 are amended and a new para-
5 graph (o) is added to read as follows:

6 (m) Determine a question common to a class or defined category of 7 persons or items of information required to be disclosed, where determi-8 nation of the question will prevent undue repetition of requests for 9 exemption or deletion or prevent undue complication in complying with 10 the requirements of such section; [~~and~~]

11 (iv) if thereafter sufficient cause exists, the commission shall take 12 additional actions, as appropriate and consistent with law[~~-~~]; and

13 (o) The commission shall develop and maintain an ethics training 14 course for members and staff of the legislature. Such course shall be 15 designed to help legislators and staff in understanding and complying 16 with current ethical and campaign finance requirements under state law,
17 legislative rules and federal law. The course which shall be available 18 to members and staff of the legislature and to the general public on the 19 internet, shall include training materials and exercises to be completed
