Introduced by Sens. MARCHIONE, DeFRANCISCO, MURPHY, SEWARD -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Investigations and Government Operations

AN ACT to amend the legislative law and the state administrative procedure act, in relation to requiring documentation establishing statutory authority prior to the adoption of a rule

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 87 of the legislative law, as added by chapter 689
2 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:

3 § 87. Powers and duties. 1. The commission shall exercise continuous 4 oversight of the process of rule making and examine rules, as defined in 5 subdivision two of section one hundred two of the state administrative 6 procedure act, adopted or proposed by each agency with respect to (i)
7 statutory authority, (ii) compliance with legislative intent, (iii)
8 impact on the economy and on the government operations of the state and 9 its local governments, and (iv) impact on affected parties; and, in 10 furtherance of such duties, may examine other issues it deems appropriate. For purpose of this article, the term agency shall mean any department, board, bureau, commission, division, office, council, committee or 11 officer of the state or a public benefit corporation or public authority 12 at least one of whose members is appointed by the governor.

15 2. The commission may employ such staff and retain such consultants 16 and expert services as may be necessary and fix their compensation and 17 expenses within the amounts appropriated therefor. Employment by the 18 commission shall be deemed to be employment by the legislature for all 19 purposes.

20 3. Proposed rules and accompanying documentation establishing the 21 statutory authority for agency promulgation, shall be provided to the 22 commission at the beginning of the public comment period required by

1 subdivision one of section two hundred two of the state administrative 2 procedure act. The commission or members of the commission may review 3 such information and determine whether such rules are consistent with 4 constitutional and statutory authority. Any determinations made by the 5 commission or a chairperson of the commission shall be made available on 6 the commission's website and provided to the respective state agency.

7 4. The commission shall have the power, subject to the provisions of 8 section seventy-three of the civil rights law, to hold hearings, subpoena
9 witnesses, administer oaths, take testimony and compel the production 10 of books, papers, documents and other evidence in furtherance of its 11 duties; provided, however, that no subpoena shall issue except upon the 12 affirmative vote of a majority of the whole membership of the commission.
13 The commission may request and shall receive from all agencies
14 such assistance and data as will enable it properly to consummate any 15 such examination, and review.

16 5. The commission shall have standing to pursue an action pursuant to 17 article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules against an 18 executive agency if the commission determines that a rule exceeds 19 authority provided under state law or the state constitution. Actions 20 shall be commenced in this way upon affirmative vote of a majority of 21 the whole membership of the commission. In the event that the speaker of 22 the assembly and the temporary president of the senate are members of 23 the same political party, the commencement of an action would require an 24 affirmative vote of more than two-thirds of the whole membership of the 25 commission.

26 § 2. Section 88 of the legislative law, as amended by chapter 850 of 27 the laws of 1990, is amended to read as follows:

28 § 88. Reports. 1. The commission shall, from time to time, report its 29 findings and recommendations to the governor, the temporary president of 30 the senate and the speaker of the assembly, and to the members of the 31 legislature, and may at any time make recommendations to an agency based 32 upon its review of that agency's rule making process, or any of the 33 agency's proposed, revised or adopted rules.

34 2. The commission may publish its findings and recommendations with 35 regard to a regulation or rule on its website, or any other form it
36 deems appropriate.

37 § 3. The opening paragraph of paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 of 38 section 202 of the state administrative procedure act, as amended by 39 chapter 304 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

40 Prior to the adoption of a rule, an agency shall submit a notice of 41 proposed rule making to the secretary of state for publication in the 42 state register, shall provide the proposed rules and accompanying 43 documentation establishing the statutory authority for promulgation to 44 the administrative regulations review commission, and shall afford the 45 public an opportunity to submit comments on the proposed rule. Unless a 46 different time is specified by statute, the notice of proposed rule
47 making must appear in the state register at least forty-five days prior 48 to either:

49 § 4. This act shall take effect immediately.
