- § 473-m. Elder abuse reporting. 1. Within amounts appropriated therefor, the commissioner shall establish a program for the development of a multidisciplinary investigative team or teams for the purpose of investigating reports of suspected elder abuse or maltreatment.
- 10 (a) The program shall provide that the social services district shall 11 have discretion with regard to the category or categories of suspected elder abuse or maltreatment such team or teams may investigate, 12 13 provided, however, that the social services district shall place partic-14 ular emphasis on cases involving physical abuse, sexual abuse, emotional 15 abuse, active, passive or self neglect, and financial exploitation as 16 defined in subdivision six of section four hundred seventy-three of the 17 social services law.
- (b) Members of multidisciplinary teams shall include but not be limited to representatives from the following agencies: adult protective 20 services, law enforcement, the district attorney's office, banks and financial institutions, as well as forensic accountants, physician or 22 medical providers trained in elder abuse and maltreatment, mental health professionals, and victim advocacy personnel. Members of the multidisciplinary team primarily responsible for the investigation of elder abuse 25 and maltreatment reports, including those representatives from adult protective services, law enforcement, and the district attorney's office, shall participate in joint interviews and conduct investigative functions consistent with the mission of the particular agency member involved. It shall not be required that members of a multidisciplinary team not responsible for the investigation of reports participate in every investigation. Such other members shall provide victim advocacy, emotional support, and access to medical and mental health care, where applicable.

- (c) All members, consistent with their respective agency missions and professions, shall facilitate efficient delivery of services to victims and appropriate disposition of cases through the criminal justice system in a collaborative manner. However, non-investigative team members shall note their specific role in the team for reports covered by this section.
- (d) Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, members of a multidisciplinary investigative team may share with other team members client-identifiable information concerning the victim or the victim's family to facilitate the investigation of suspected elder abuse or maltreatment. Nothing in this subdivision shall preclude the creation of multidisciplinary teams which include more than one social services district. Each team shall develop a written protocol for investigation of elder abuse and maltreatment cases and for interviewing elder abuse and maltreatment victims.
- 2. Approved projects shall submit a report to the director of the state office for the aging, who shall make such reports available to the majority leader of the senate, the speaker of the assembly, and the chairs of the aging committees of the senate and assembly, by November first, two thousand seventeen, documenting initial findings of the multidisciplinary team investigations, including, but not limited to:
- (a) final dispositions of criminal cases that were investigated and assisted by the multidisciplinary team, with appropriate confidentiality measures taken to protect the identities of victims and the accused;
- 33 (b) physical and mental health outcomes of victims who were the 34 subjects of elder abuse and maltreatment cases;
- 35 (c) financial judgments and repayments made as a result of the inves-36 tigation and intervention of the multidisciplinary team;
- 37 (d) necessary measures taken to ensure cross-collaboration across
  38 agencies and providers; and
- (e) necessary training that each social services district took to train members including appropriate ways to assess risk, identify indicators of elder abuse and maltreatment, and conduct appropriate interviews.
- § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
