IN SENATE

January 12, 2017

Introduced by Sen. ALCANTARA -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Consumer Protection -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to authorizing the attorney general to bring an action for violation of the prohibitions concerning unlawful selling practices and specifying damages awardable

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 3 of section 396 of the general business law, 2 as amended by chapter 99 of the laws of 1966, is amended to read as 3 follows:

4 3. a. Whenever there shall be a violation of this section, an applica-5 tion may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of 6 the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction to issue 7 an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five 8 days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violation; and if 9 it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the 10 defendant is, in fact, violating this section, an injunction may be 11 issued by such court or justice, enjoining and restraining such action 12 or violation, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been 13 misled or deceived or otherwise damaged thereby.

14 b. In addition to the authority granted to the attorney general pursu-15 ant to paragraph a of this subdivision and the authority granted to a 16 recipient pursuant to paragraph a of subdivision two of this section, 17 the attorney general, or any person adversely affected by reason of a 18 violation of the provisions of subdivision two of this section, may 19 bring an action against a person who violates the provisions of subdivi-20 sion two of this section to recover the greater of:

21 (1) actual damages; or

1 (2) up to five hundred dollars for each instance in which goods, wares
2 or merchandise were sent in violation of the provisions of subdivision
3 two of this section.

4 c. In an action under paragraph b of this subdivision the court may 5 award the costs of the action together with reasonable attorney's fees
6 to a prevailing plaintiff.

7 d. Nothing in this section shall in any way limit rights or remedies 8 which are otherwise available under law to the attorney general or any 9 other person authorized to bring an action under this section.

10 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall apply to all 11 selling practices pertaining to unordered goods.
