Introduced by Sen. PARKER -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the elder law, in relation to volunteer programs

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 7 of section 203 of the elder law is amended to 2 read as follows:
3 7. (a) The director is hereby authorized, within amounts appropriated 4 therefor, to make grants-in-aid to retired and senior volunteer programs 5 for the engagement of individuals fifty-five years of age or over to 6 serve as volunteers for the betterment of their community and them-
7 selves. Such volunteer activities may include but shall not be limited 8 to assisting with the preparation of meals at nutrition sites; leading 9 activities at child care centers; delivering meals to homebound elderly;
10 providing telephone reassurance and/or friendly visits to the frail 11 elderly; tutoring adults or children; assisting with services for the 12 homeless and assisting school districts which request volunteers for the 13 purpose of notifying a person in parental relation to any elementary 14 school pupil when such pupil is deemed absent from required attendance 15 at his or her designated school. The services of these volunteers will 16 be performed in the community where such individuals reside or in nearby 17 communities. Up to ten percent of such grants-in-aid may be expended for 18 the administrative purposes of such programs, with the approval of the 19 office. Such grants shall be for a period of twelve months or less, 20 shall not be used to match other state funds, shall not be used as a 21 substitute for federal allocations, and shall be made in a manner which 22 does not conflict with federal law, rule or regulation pursuant to title
23 II of the United States domestic volunteer services act of nineteen 24 hundred seventy-three, as amended. Grants may be used to match federal 25 funds, but not as a substitute for presently required non-federal 26 shares. Each grantee shall file reports at such time and containing such

1 information as the office shall require. For the purpose of administer-2 ing such grants-in-aid the office may make such agreements with other 3 public agencies as are deemed necessary.

4 (b) In addition to the powers and duties contained in subdivision two 5 of this section, the office is hereby authorized to enter into a 6 relationship, defined by contract, with one or more statewide organiza-
7 tions for the purpose of establishing a databank of individuals wishing 8 to volunteer their services to programs that address the needs of the 9 aging, and to establish, replicate, or encourage the development of 10 training programs for such volunteers and programs. The office shall 11 establish guidelines for the use of any such databank, including 12 requirements concerning appropriate data to be entered into the data-13 bank, confidentiality, screening, access, correction of the data, and 14 such other requirements as the office, after consultation and with the 15 advice of the advisory committee for the aging and others, shall estab-16 lish. The purpose of the training curriculum shall be to train, on a 17 voluntary basis, volunteers for the tasks they are interested in, and 18 individuals in not-for-profit organizations in effectively and effi-
19 ciently using volunteers. In developing the curriculum the office may 20 consult and work with individuals and entities with expertise in such 21 training and development at the state university of New York and the 22 city university of New York.

23 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately, provided that the powers 24 and duties established in paragraph (b) of subdivision 7 of section 203 25 of the elder law as added by this act shall be effective on and after 26 the first of April occurring at least one year after the date on which 27 this act shall have become a law.
