

STATE OF NEW YORK

2406--A

2017-2018 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

January 13, 2017

Introduced by Sen. GOLDEN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes -- committee discharged, bill amended, ordered reprinted as amended and recommitted to said committee

AN ACT to amend the penal law and the criminal procedure law, in relation to cyber crimes; and to repeal certain provisions of the penal law relating to scheme to defraud

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivisions 1, 2, 3 and 4 of section 155.00 of the penal 2 law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 514 of the laws of 1986, are 3 amended and two new subdivisions 10 and 11 are added to read as follows:

4 1. "Property" means any money, personal property, real property,
5 computer data, computer program, personal identifying information, 6 secret scientific material, thing in action, evidence of debt or 7 contract, or any article, substance or thing of value, including any 8 gas, steam, water or electricity, which is provided for a charge or 9 compensation.

10 2. "Obtain" includes, but is not limited to, the bringing about of a 11 transfer or purported transfer of property or of a legal interest there-12 in, whether to the obtainer or another. With regard to personal identi-13 fying information, computer data or computer program, obtain includes 14 duplicating, recording, copying, downloading, uploading or printing out 15 the information, data, or program, or obtaining a physical object 16 containing such information. With regard to service, obtain includes, 17 but is not limited to, using or accessing a service.

18 3. "Deprive." To "deprive" another of property means (a) to withhold 19 it or cause it to be withheld from him or her permanently or for so 20 extended a period or under such circumstances that the major portion of 21 its economic value or benefit is lost to him or her, or (b) to dispose 22 of the property in such manner or under such circumstances as to render

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 it unlikely that an owner will recover such property. When the property 2 is personal identifying information, computer data or computer program, 3 to deprive another of its means to obtain it or cause a third person to 4 obtain it under such circumstances that a substantial portion of the 5 economic benefit or value of having control over it or authority over 6 its use is lost to an owner. To deprive another of service is to use or 7 access a service or cause a third person to use or access a service 8 under such circumstances that some of the economic benefit or value of 9 having control or authority over providing the service is lost to an 10 owner.

11 4. "Appropriate." To "appropriate" property of another to oneself or a 12 third person means (a) to exercise control over it, or to aid a third 13 person to exercise control over it, permanently or for so extended a 14 period or under such circumstances as to acquire the major portion of 15 its economic value or benefit, or (b) to dispose of the property for the 16 benefit of oneself or a third person. When the property is personal 17 identifying information, computer data or computer program of another, 18 to appropriate it to oneself or a third person means to obtain it under 19 such circumstances as to acquire the ability to use it or dispose of it 20 to the economic benefit of oneself or a third person or to the economic 21 detriment or damage of an owner. To appropriate a service provided by 22 another to oneself or a third person means to use or access the service 23 under such circumstances as to acquire the ability to use it to the 24 economic benefit of oneself or a third person or to the economic detri-25 ment or damage of an owner.

26 10. "Computer program" means an ordered set of data representing coded 27 instructions or statements that when executed by the computer, cause the 28 computer to process data or direct the computer to perform one or more 29 computer operations or both and may be in any form, including magnetic 30 storage media, optical media, computing devices, punched cards, or 31 stored internally in the memory of the computer.

32 11. "Computer data" means a representation of information, knowledge, 33 facts, concept or instructions which are being processed, or have been 34 processed in a computer and may be in any form including magnetic stor-35 age media, punched cards, or stored internally in the memory of the 36 computer.

37 § 2. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 155.05 of the penal law 38 is amended and a new paragraph (f) is added to read as follows:

39 (c) By committing the crime of issuing a bad check, as defined in 40 section 190.05, or by obtaining property or service by using or present-41 ing a form of payment or personal identifying information the actor 42 knows he or she is not authorized to use or knows is expired or forged 43 or otherwise not valid;

44 (f) By theft of service. Theft of service means either: (i) using or 45 accessing a service in a manner that otherwise requires payment and 46 intentionally failing to pay for such use or access by either tampering 47 without authority with a delivery, payment, or measurement device or 48 mechanism, or by entering or leaving premises where the service is 49 provided by stealth or by evading a physical barrier, or (ii) using or 50 accessing a service in a manner that otherwise requires payment or the 51 presentation of personal identifying information and using or presenting 52 a form of payment or personal identifying information the actor knows he 53 or she is not authorized to use or knows is expired or forged or other-54 wise not valid.

55 § 3. Subdivision 1 of section 155.20 of the penal law is amended to 56 read as follows:

1. Except as otherwise specified in this section, value means the market value of the property at the time and place of the crime, or if such cannot be satisfactorily ascertained, the cost of replacement of the property within a reasonable time after the crime. With regard to service, value shall also mean the cost of providing the service at the time of the crime, and with regard to the value of computer data or computer program value shall mean the replacement cost or the market value at the time and place of the crime, or the cost to write or develop such data and/or program, whichever is greater.

§ 4. The penal law is amended by adding a new section 155.23 to read as follows:

§ 155.23 Petit theft of service.

A person is guilty of petit theft of service when he or she steals a service.

Petit theft of service is a class B misdemeanor.

§ 5. Section 155.25 of the penal law is amended to read as follows:

§ 155.25 Petit larceny.

A person is guilty of petit larceny when he or she steals property, or steals a service and the value of the service exceeds five hundred dollars.

Petit larceny is a class A misdemeanor.

§ 6. The opening paragraph and subdivisions 1, 4 and 6 of section 155.30 of the penal law, the opening paragraph and subdivisions 1 and 6 as amended by chapter 515 of the laws of 1986, subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 556 of the laws of 1987, are amended to read as follows:

A person is guilty of grand larceny in the fourth degree when he or she steals property or a service and when:

1. The value of the property or service exceeds one thousand dollars; or

4. The property consists of a credit card or debit card or personal identifying information; or

6. The property or service, regardless of its nature and value, is obtained by extortion; or

§ 7. Section 155.35 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 464 of the laws of 2010, is amended to read as follows:

§ 155.35 Grand larceny in the third degree.

A person is guilty of grand larceny in the third degree when he or she steals property or a service and:

1. when the value of the property exceeds three thousand dollars, or

2. the property is an automated teller machine or the contents of an automated teller machine, or

3. the property is personal identifying information of twenty-five or more persons.

Grand larceny in the third degree is a class D felony.

§ 8. Section 155.40 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 515 of the laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

§ 155.40 Grand larceny in the second degree.

A person is guilty of grand larceny in the second degree when he or she steals property or a service and when:

1. The value of the property or service exceeds fifty thousand dollars; or

2. The property or service, regardless of its nature and value, is obtained by extortion committed by instilling in the victim a fear that the actor or another person will (a) cause physical injury to some person in the future, or (b) cause damage to property, or (c) use or abuse his or her position as a public servant by engaging in conduct

1 within or related to his or her official duties, or by failing or refus-
2 ing to perform an official duty, in such manner as to affect some person 3 adversely, or

4 3. the property is personal identifying information of one hundred or 5 more persons.

6 Grand larceny in the second degree is a class C felony.

7 § 9. Section 155.42 of the penal law, as added by chapter 515 of the 8 laws of 1986, is amended to read as follows:

9 § 155.42 Grand larceny in the first degree.

10 A person is guilty of grand larceny in the first degree when he or she 11 steals property or a service and when the value of the property or 12 service exceeds one million dollars; or the property is personal identi-13 fying information of one thousand or more persons.

14 Grand larceny in the first degree is a class B felony.

15 § 10. Subdivisions 5 and 8 of section 156.00 of the penal law, subdivi-16 sion 5 as amended and subdivision 8 as added by chapter 558 of the 17 laws of 2006, are amended to read as follows:

18 5. "Computer material" is property and means any computer data or 19 computer program which:

20 (a) contains records of the medical history or medical treatment of an 21 identified or readily identifiable individual or individuals. This term 22 shall not apply to the gaining access to or duplication solely of the 23 medical history or medical treatment records of a person by that person 24 or by another specifically authorized by the person whose records are 25 gained access to or duplicated; or

26 (b) contains records maintained by the state or any political subdivi-27 sion thereof or any governmental instrumentality within the state which 28 contains any information concerning a person, as defined in subdivision 29 seven of section 10.00 of this chapter, which because of name, number, 30 symbol, mark or other identifier, can be used to identify the person and 31 which is otherwise prohibited by law from being disclosed. This term 32 shall not apply to the gaining access to or duplication solely of 33 records of a person by that person or by another specifically authorized 34 by the person whose records are gained access to or duplicated; or 35 (c) is not and is not intended to be available to anyone other than 36 the person or persons rightfully in possession thereof or selected 37 persons having access thereto with his, her or their consent and which 38 ~~[accords or may accord such rightful possessors an advantage over~~ 39 ~~competitors or other persons who do not have knowledge or the benefit~~ 40 ~~thereof]~~ any person, other than a person rightfully in possession, knows 41 or should know is not intended to be available to him or her.

42 8. "Without authorization" means to use or to access a computer, 43 computer service or computer network without the permission of the owner 44 or lessor or someone licensed or privileged by the owner or lessor where 45 such person knew that his or her use or access was without permission or 46 after actual notice to such person that such use or access was without 47 permission, or that such use or access was for purposes other than those 48 for which permission was granted by the owner, lessor, or someone 49 licensed or privileged by such owner or lessor. It shall also mean the 50 access of a computer service by a person without permission where such 51 person knew that such access was without permission or after actual 52 notice to such person, that such access was without permission.

53 Proof that such person used or accessed a computer, computer service 54 or computer network through the knowing use of a set of instructions, 55 code or computer program that bypasses, defrauds or otherwise circum-
56 vents a security measure installed or used with the user's authorization

1 on the computer, computer service or computer network shall be presump-2 tive evidence that such person used or accessed such computer, computer 3 service or computer network without authorization.

4 § 11. Section 156.20 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 558 of 5 the laws of 2006, is amended to read as follows:

6 § 156.20 Computer tampering in the [~~fourth~~] fifth degree.

7 A person is guilty of computer tampering in the [~~fourth~~] fifth degree 8 when he or she uses, causes to be used, or accesses a computer, computer 9 service, or computer network without authorization and he or she inten-10 tionally alters in any manner or destroys computer data or a computer 11 program of another person.

12 Computer tampering in the [~~fourth~~] fifth degree is a class A misdemea-13 nor.

14 § 12. Section 156.25 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 89 of the 15 laws of 1993, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 376 of the laws of 16 1997, is amended to read as follows:

17 § 156.25 Computer tampering in the [~~third~~] fourth degree.

18 A person is guilty of computer tampering in the third degree when he 19 or she commits the crime of computer tampering in the [~~fourth~~] fifth 20 degree and:

21 1. he or she does so with an intent to commit or attempt to commit or 22 further the commission of any felony; or

23 2. he or she has been previously convicted of any crime under this 24 article or subdivision eleven of section 165.15 of this chapter; or

25 3. he or she intentionally alters in any manner or destroys computer 26 material; or

27 4. he or she intentionally alters in any manner or destroys computer 28 data or a computer program so as to cause damages in an aggregate amount 29 exceeding one thousand dollars.

30 Computer tampering in the [~~third~~] fourth degree is a class E felony.

31 § 13. Section 156.26 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 590 of 32 the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

33 § 156.26 Computer tampering in the [~~second~~] third degree.

34 A person is guilty of computer tampering in the [~~second~~] third degree 35 when he or she commits the crime of computer tampering in the fourth 36 degree and he or she intentionally alters in any manner or destroys:

37 1. computer data or a computer program so as to cause damages in an 38 aggregate amount exceeding three thousand dollars; or

39 2. computer material that contains records of the medical history or 40 medical treatment of an identified or readily identifiable individual or 41 individuals and as a result of such alteration or destruction, such 42 individual or individuals suffer serious physical injury, and he or she 43 is aware of and consciously disregards a substantial and unjustifiable 44 risk that such serious physical injury may occur.

45 Computer tampering in the [~~second~~] third degree is a class D felony.

56 hundred seventy of this chapter, or of any larceny crime as defined in article one hundred fifty-five of this chapter, or of any criminal possession of stolen property crime as defined in article one hundred sixty-five of this chapter.

[Unlawful] Criminal possession of a skimmer device in the first degree is a class [E] C felony.

§ 27. Paragraph (1) of subdivision 4 of section 20.40 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by section 3 of subpart C of part C of chapter 97 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:

(1) An offense of identity theft, larceny, criminal possession of stolen property, or unlawful possession of personal identifying information, in which the property stolen or criminally possessed is personal identifying information or computer data or computer program, and all criminal acts committed as part of the same criminal transaction as defined in subdivision two of section 40.10 of this chapter may be prosecuted (i) in any county in which part of the offense took place regardless of whether the defendant was actually present in such county, or (ii) in the county in which the person who suffers financial loss resided at the time of the commission of the offense, or (iii) in the county where the person whose personal identifying information was used in the commission of the offense resided at the time of the commission of the offense. The law enforcement agency of any such county shall take a police report of the matter and provide the complainant with a copy of such report at no charge.

§ 28. Subdivision 2 of section 690.05 of the criminal procedure law, as amended by chapter 504 of the laws of 1991, the opening paragraph as amended by chapter 424 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

2. A search warrant is a court order and process directing a police officer, district attorney or other public servant of the kind described in subdivision one of this section, to conduct:

(a) a search of designated premises, or of a designated vehicle, or of a designated person, or of electronic records and data that have been directed under this article to be produced from an electronic communication service or remote computing service, for the purpose of seizing designated property or kinds of property, and to deliver any property so obtained to the court which issued the warrant; or

(b) a search of a designated premises for the purpose of searching for and arresting a person who is the subject of: (i) a warrant of arrest issued pursuant to this chapter, a superior court warrant of arrest issued pursuant to this chapter, or a bench warrant for a felony issued pursuant to this chapter, where the designated premises is the dwelling of a third party who is not the subject of the arrest warrant; or

(ii) a warrant of arrest issued by any other state or federal court for an offense which would constitute a felony under the laws of this state, where the designated premises is the dwelling of a third party who is not the subject of the arrest warrant.

§ 29. Section 690.05 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding two new subdivisions 3 and 4 to read as follows:

3. A court authorized to issue search warrants under this article shall be deemed a "court of competent jurisdiction" under 18 U.S.C. section 2711(3) of the Electronic Communications Privacy Act in Chapter 121 (commencing with Section 2701) of Part I of Title 18 of the United States Code Annotated and shall be authorized to issue orders as provided by federal law.

4. As used in this article, the term "electronic communications service" means any service which provides to users thereof the ability to send or receive wire or electronic communications. "Remote computing service" means any service which provides to users thereof computer storage or processing services by means of an electronic communications system. The terms "electronic communication service" and "remote computing service" shall be construed in accordance with the Electronic Communications Privacy Act in Chapter 121 (commencing with Section 2701) of Part I of Title 18 of the United State Code Annotated. This section shall not apply to corporations that do not provide those services to the general public.

§ 30. Subdivision 1 of section 690.15 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

1. A search warrant must direct a search of one or more of the following:

(a) A designated or described place or premises;

(b) A designated or described vehicle, as that term is defined in section 10.00 of the penal law;

(c) A designated or described person[~~+~~];

(d) A designated or described electronic communication service or remote computing service.

§ 31. Section 690.20 of the criminal procedure law is amended to read as follows:

§ 690.20 Search warrants; where executable.

1. A search warrant issued by a district court, the New York City criminal court or a superior court judge sitting as a local criminal court may be executed pursuant to its terms anywhere in the state.

(a) Notwithstanding any provision of this subdivision, a search warrant directing the production of electronic records and data from a designated or described electronic communication service or remote computing service, may be executed on:

(i) any company, corporation or entity which is headquartered or operates within the state of New York; or

(ii) any company, corporation or entity which is headquartered or operates outside of the state of New York, and which conducts regular business in New York; or

(iii) any company which offers services to residents of New York, or does business in New York under a contract or terms of service agreement with a resident of this state, if any part of that contract or agreement is to be performed in New York.

(b) Service on any electronic communication service or remote computing service pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision, may be made by personal delivery within the state, by registered or certified mail. Service may also be made by facsimile or other electronic means if the service is accompanied with a certification from the sender that sender is a police officer, district attorney or other public servant of the kind specified in subdivision one of section 690.05 of this article.

(c) Personal service or substituted service to any electronic communication service or remote computing service may also be made by a police officer, district attorney or other public servant of the kind described in subdivision one of section 690.05 of this article, to any officer, director, managing or general agent, or any other employee of such company or entity actually present in New York state or at any office or place of doing business used by such entity located within New York state.

(d) A search warrant that is issued pursuant to subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall be limited in scope to the designated or described electronic records or data, either in paper or

1 electronic form, that are made, kept, or maintained by the electronic 2 communication service or remote computing service, and shall not include 3 the seizure of any other physical or tangible items.

4 (e) Any electronic records or data responsive to a search warrant 5 issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be admitted into evidence 6 before the grand jury or at trial in accord with the rules and laws of 7 New York state.

8 2. A search warrant issued by a city court, a town court or a village 9 court may be executed pursuant to its terms only in the county of issu-10 ance or an adjoining county.

11 3. The provisions of subdivision one of this section to the contrary 12 notwithstanding, a search warrant directing the search of a designated 13 or described electronic communication service or remote computing 14 service, may be executed on any company, corporation or entity which is 15 headquartered or located outside of the state of New York, and which 16 conducts its regular business in New York or that offers its services to 17 residents of New York. Service on any such electronic communication 18 service or remote computing service entity may be made by personal 19 delivery within the state, by registered or certified mail. Service may 20 also be made by facsimile or other electronic means if the service is 21 accompanied with a certification from the sender that such sender is a 22 police officer, district attorney or other public servant specified in 23 subdivision one of section 690.05 of this article. If an entity shall 24 refuse such service, then such police officer, district attorney or 25 other public servant located within the jurisdiction in which the elec-26 tronic communication service or remote computing service entity is 27 located may serve the warrant upon such entity. A search warrant issued 28 pursuant to this subdivision shall be limited in scope to the designated 29 or described electronic records or data, either in paper or electronic 30 form, that are made, kept, or maintained by the electronic communication 31 service or remote computing service, and shall not include any other 32 physical or tangible items. Any electronic records or data responsive to 33 a search warrant issued pursuant to this subdivision shall be admitted 34 into evidence before the grand jury or at trial in accord with the rules 35 and laws of New York state.

36 § 32. Section 690.30 of the criminal procedure law is amended by 37 adding three new subdivisions 3, 4 and 5 to read as follows:

38 3. Notwithstanding any provision of subdivision one of this section, a 39 search warrant that is issued pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision 40 one of section 690.20 of this article is deemed executed for purposes of 41 this article at the time that service is made upon the electronic commu-42 nication service or remote computing service entity pursuant to para-43 graph (b) or (c) of subdivision one of section 690.20 of this article.

44 4. A company or entity which has received a search warrant issued 45 pursuant to subdivision one of section 690.20 of this article, shall 46 produce as required by the search warrant any and all records in their 47 possession which are responsive to such warrant, regardless where any 48 such records may be physically stored, maintained or kept, if such 49 records are in fact accessible electronically from such company or enti-
50 ty. Any records stored, maintained or kept by an electronic communi-51 cation service or remote computing service may be presumed to be within 52 the dominion and control and possession by such companies or entities 53 regardless of where such records are physically located.

54 5. The provision of records by a company or entity in response to a 55 search warrant that is issued pursuant to subdivision one of section 56 690.20 of this article shall produce all records responsive to such

1 warrant to the police officer, district attorney or other public servant 2 who served the entity with such warrant, within a period not to exceed 3 thirty days.

4 (a) An electronic communication service or remote computing service 5 responding to a warrant under this section may request an extension of 6 the period for compliance with a warrant if extenuating circumstances
7 reasonably exist to justify such extension. Any request for extension 8 shall be made to the court which issued the warrant and on written 9 notice to the police officer, district attorney or other public servant 10 who served the entity with such warrant.

11 (b) The failure of a company or entity to timely deliver the records
12 sought by a warrant issued pursuant to subdivision one of section 690.20 13 of this article shall not affect the admissibility of that evidence in a 14 criminal proceeding.

15 (c) The failure of a company or entity to timely deliver the records
16 sought by a warrant issued pursuant to subdivision one of section 690.20 17 of this article, in the absence of a request for an extension, shall 18 constitute prima facie evidence of criminal contempt in violation of 19 subdivision three of section 215.50 of the penal law.

20 § 33. Section 496.06 of the penal law, as added by section 14 of 21 subpart A of part H of chapter 55 of the laws of 2014, is amended to 22 read as follows:

23 § 496.06 Public corruption.

24 1. A person commits the crime of public corruption when: (a) (i) being 25 a public servant he or she commits a specified offense through the use 26 of his or her public office, or (ii) being a person acting in concert 27 with such public servant he or she commits a specified offense, and (b) 28 the state or any political subdivision thereof or any governmental 29 instrumentality within the state is the owner of the property.

33 larceny in the third degree); section 155.40 (grand larceny in the 34 second degree); section 155.42 (grand larceny in the first degree); 35 section 190.60 (scheme to defraud in the ~~second~~ fifth degree); section 36 190.62 (scheme to defraud in the fourth degree); section 190.63 (scheme 37 to defraud in the third degree); section 190.64 (scheme to defraud in 38 the second degree); or section 190.65 (scheme to defraud in the first 39 degree).

40 § 34. Section 190.77 of the penal law, as amended by chapter 226 of 41 the laws of 2008, subdivision 1 as separately amended by chapter 279 of 42 the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:

43 § 190.77 Offenses involving theft of identity; definitions.

44 1. For the purposes of sections 190.78, 190.79, 190.80 ~~[and]~~,

56 code, electronic serial number or personal identification number, or any

1 other name, number, code or information that may be used alone or in 2 conjunction with other such information to assume the identity of another 3 person.

4 2. For the purposes of sections 190.78, 190.79, 190.80, 190.80-a, 5 190.80-b, 190.80-c, 190.81, 190.82 and 190.83 of this article:

6 a. "electronic signature" shall have the same meaning as defined in 7 subdivision three of section three hundred two of the state technology 8 law.

9 b. "personal identification number" means any number or code which may 10 be used alone or in conjunction with any other information to assume the 11 identity of another person or access financial resources or credit of 12 another person.

13 c. "member of the armed forces" shall mean a person in the military 14 service of the United States or the military service of the state, 15 including but not limited to, the armed forces of the United States, the 16 army national guard, the air national guard, the New York naval militia, 17 the New York guard, and such additional forces as may be created by the 18 federal or state government as authorized by law.

19 § 35. Subdivision 2 of section 190.83 of the penal law, as separately 20 amended by chapters 226 and 279 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read 21 as follows:

13 § 38. Subdivision 1 and paragraph (b) of subdivision 4 of section 14 60.27 of the penal law, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 279 of the 15 laws of 2008, and paragraph (b) of subdivision 4 as amended by chapter 16 313 of the laws of 2011, are amended to read as follows:

17 1. In addition to any of the dispositions authorized by this article, 18 the court shall consider restitution or reparation to the victim of the 19 crime and may require restitution or reparation as part of the sentence 20 imposed upon a person convicted of an offense, and after providing the 21 district attorney with an opportunity to be heard in accordance with the 22 provisions of this subdivision, require the defendant to make restitu-23 tion of the fruits of his or her offense or reparation for the actual 24 out-of-pocket loss caused thereby and, in the case of a violation of 25 section 190.78, 190.79, 190.80, 190.80-a, 190.80-b, 190.82 or 190.83 of 26 this chapter, any costs or losses incurred due to any adverse action 27 taken against the victim. The district attorney shall where appropriate, 28 advise the court at or before the time of sentencing that the victim 29 seeks restitution or reparation, the extent of injury or economic loss 30 or damage of the victim, and the amount of restitution or reparation 31 sought by the victim in accordance with his or her responsibilities 32 under subdivision two of section 390.50 of the criminal procedure law 33 and article twenty-three of the executive law. The court shall hear and 34 consider the information presented by the district attorney in this 35 regard. In that event, or when the victim impact statement reports that 36 the victim seeks restitution or reparation, the court shall require, 37 unless the interests of justice dictate otherwise, in addition to any of 38 the dispositions authorized by this article that the defendant make 39 restitution of the fruits of the offense and reparation for the actual 40 out-of-pocket loss and, in the case of a violation of section 190.78, 41 190.79, 190.80, 190.82 or 190.83 of this chapter, any costs or losses 42 incurred due to any adverse action, caused thereby to the victim. In the 43 event that restitution or reparation are not ordered, the court shall 44 clearly state its reasons on the record. Adverse action as used in this 45 subdivision shall mean and include actual loss incurred by the victim, 46 including an amount equal to the value of the time reasonably spent by 47 the victim attempting to remediate the harm incurred by the victim from 48 the offense, and the consequential financial losses from such action.

49 (b) the term "victim" shall include the victim of the offense, the 50 representative of a crime victim as defined in subdivision six of 51 section six hundred twenty-one of the executive law, an individual whose 52 identity was assumed or whose personal identifying information was used 53 in violation of section 190.78, 190.79 [~~or~~], 190.80, 190.80-a or 54 190.80-b of this chapter, or any person who has suffered a financial 55 loss as a direct result of the acts of a defendant in violation of 56 section 190.78, 190.79, 190.80, 190.80-a, 190.80-b, 190.82 or 190.83 of

1 this chapter, a good samaritan as defined in section six hundred twen-2 ty-one of the executive law and the office of victim services or other 3 governmental agency that has received an application for or has provided 4 financial assistance or compensation to the victim. A victim shall also 5 mean any owner or lawful producer of a master recording, or a trade 6 association that represents such owner or lawful producer, that has 7 suffered injury as a result of an offense as defined in article two 8 hundred seventy-five of this chapter.

9 § 39. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, 10 section or part of this act shall be adjudged by a court of competent 11 jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or 12 invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation 13 to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this 14 act directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall 15 have been rendered.

16 § 40. This act shall take effect on the first of November next 17 succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
