AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to providing a tax credit for universal visitability; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new 1 2 subsection (ccc) to read as follows: (ccc) Universal visitability tax credit. (1) For taxable years begin-3 ning on or after January first, two thousand eighteen, until December 4 5 thirty-first, two thousand twenty-two, a taxpayer shall be allowed a б credit against the tax imposed by this article for a portion of the 7 total purchase price paid by such taxpayer for a principal residence attributable to universal visitability or the total amount expended by a 8 taxpayer to retrofit an existing principal residence to achieve 9 universal visitability provided that the principal residence or the 10 11 retrofitting of the existing principal residence is located within this 12 state and designed to provide universal visitability as defined through 13 the eligibility requirements established by guidelines developed by the 14 division of code enforcement and administration within the department of state. For the purpose of this subsection, principal residence shall 15 mean such residence pursuant to section one hundred twenty-one of the 16 17 internal revenue code. 18 (2) The credit shall be allowed for the taxable year in which the 19 principal residence has been purchased or constructed, or the retrofit-20 ting or renovation of the residence or residential unit has been 21 completed, or the year of allocation to the taxpayer as provided in 22 paragraph seven of this subsection. The credit allowed under this

1	subsection shall not exceed (A) twenty-seven hundred fifty dollars for
2	the purchase of a new residence, or (B) fifty percent of the total
3	amount expended, but not to exceed twenty-seven hundred fifty dollars
4	for the retrofitting or renovation of each existing residence or unit.
5	(3) No credit shall be allowed under this subsection for the purchase,
6	retrofitting or renovation of residential rental property.
7 8	(4) The credit shall be allowed under this subsection only for
o 9	universal visitability improvements made by or at the direction of the taxpayer.
9 10	(5) If the amount of the credit allowable under this subsection shall
11	exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess may be carried over
$12^{11}$	to the following year or years and may be deducted from the taxpayer's
13	tax for such year or years.
$14^{13}$	(6) Eligible taxpayers shall apply for the credit through the division
15	of code enforcement and administration within the department of state.
16	The division of code enforcement and administration within the depart-
17	ment of state shall issue a certification for an approved application to 18	the taxpayer that states the amount of the credit allocated to the
19	taxpayer and the allocation year.
20	(7) (A) The aggregate amount of tax credits allowed pursuant to the
21	authority of this subsection shall be one million dollars each year
22	during the period two thousand eighteen through two thousand twenty-two.
23	Such aggregate amounts of credits shall be allocated by the department
24	of state among taxpayers in order of priority based upon the date of
25	filing an application for allocation of credit with the division of code
26	enforcement and administration. If the total amount of allocated credits
27	applied for in any particular year exceeds the aggregate amount of tax
28	credits allowed for such year under this subsection, such excess shall
29	be treated as having been applied for on the first day of the subsequent
30	year.
31	(B) The secretary of state, after consulting with the commissioner,
32	shall promulgate regulations by October thirty-first, two thousand
33	seventeen to establish procedures for the allocation of tax credits as
34	required by this subparagraph. Such rules and regulations shall include
35	provisions describing the application process, the due dates for such
36	applications, the standards which shall be used to evaluate the applica-
37	tions, the documentation that will be provided to taxpayers to substan-
38	tiate to the department the amount of tax credits allocated to such
39	taxpayers, and such other provisions as deemed necessary and appropri-
40	ate. Notwithstanding any other provisions to the contrary in the state
41	administrative procedure act, such rules and regulations may be adopted
42	on an emergency basis if necessary to meet such October thirty-first,
43	two thousand seventeen deadline.
44	(8) The department of state shall submit to the governor, the tempo-
45	rary president of the senate, and the speaker of the assembly, an annual 46	report to be submitted by February first of each year evaluating the 47	effectiveness of the universal visitability tax credit provided by this
48	subsection. Such report shall be based on data available from the appli-
49	cation filed with the division of code enforcement and administration
50	for universal visitability credits. Notwithstanding any provision of law
51	to the contrary, the information contained in the report shall be public
52	information. The report may also include any recommendations of changes
53	in the calculation or administration of the credit, and any other recom-
54	mendation of the commissioner of the department of state or the division
55	of code enforcement and administration regarding continuing modifica-
