Introduced by Sen. GALLIVAN -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Veterans, Homeland Security and Military Affairs

AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to tax exemptions for persons with active military service of the United States and eligible reservists

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The real property tax law is amended by adding a new 2 section 458-c to read as follows:

3 § 458-c. Exemption for certain persons with active military service of 4 the United States and certain reservists. 1. For purposes of this 5 section, "eligible reservist" means a member of a reserve component of 6 the armed forces of the United States ordered to active duty by the 7 president of the United States.

8 2. Real property owned by an eligible person with active military 9 service, such person's spouse, an eligible reservist or such reservist's 10 spouse shall be exempt from taxation of such property for city, village, 11 town, part town, special district or county purposes, exclusive of 12 special assessments, provided that the governing body of a city,
13 village, town or county, after a public hearing, adopts a local law,
14 ordinance or resolution providing therefor.

15 3. Such exemption shall not be granted to an eligible person with 16 active military service, such person's spouse, an eligible reservist or 17 such reservist's spouse residing in such county unless:

18 (a) the property is the primary residence of the applicant;
19 (b) the property is used exclusively for residential purposes;
20 provided, however, that in the event any portion of such property is not 21 used exclusively for the applicant's residence but is used for other 22 purposes, such portion shall be subject to taxation and the remaining

1 portion only shall be entitled to the exemption provided by this 2 section; and

3 (c) the eligible person with active military service or the eligible 4 reservist retained his or her active duty status for at least ninety 5 consecutive days within the immediately preceding calendar year in which 6 he or she is requesting the exemption as authorized by this section.

7 4. Any eligible person with active military service or any eligible
8 reservist shall be granted the exemption as authorized by this section 9 for the period of his or her active duty status as long as his or her 10 primary residence is located within a village, town or county in which 11 the governing body of such village, town or county, after a public hear-12 ing, adopts a local law, ordinance or resolution providing for such 13 exemption.

14 5. Application for such exemption shall be filed with the assessor or 15 other agency, department or office designated by the municipality offer-16 ing such exemption on or before the taxable status date on a form as 17 prescribed by the commissioner.

18 6. No applicant who is an eligible person with active military service 19 or an eligible reservist who by reason of such status is receiving any 20 benefit under the provisions of this article on the effective date of 21 this section shall suffer any diminution of such benefit because of the 22 provisions of this section.

23 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately, shall be deemed to have 24 been in full force and effect on and after September 11, 2001 and shall 25 apply to taxable status dates occurring on or after September 11, 2001.
