AN ACT to amend the banking law, in relation to banking development districts

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision 2 of section 96-d of the banking law, as added 2 by chapter 204 of the laws of 1997, is amended to read as follows:

- 2. A local government, in conjunction with a bank, trust company or 3 4 national bank, may submit an application to the superintendent for the designation of a banking development district. The superintendent shall issue a determination on such an application within sixty days of receiving such application. If an application is approved, the super-7 intendent shall transmit notification of such approval to the local 9 government, the bank, trust company or national bank, the state comp-10 troller, the commissioner of taxation and finance, the commissioner of 11 the department of economic development, the temporary president of the 12 senate and the speaker of the assembly. A designation of a banking development district shall be valid for ten years from the date of 13 14 designation. The superintendent may extend the term of a banking devel-15 opment district an additional ten year period upon a determination that 16 there is a demonstrated need for banking services in such banking devel-17 opment district.
- 18 § 2. Section 96-d of the banking law is amended by adding a new subdi-19 vision 3-a to read as follows:
- 3-a. In order to meet the demonstrated need for banking services in a banking development district, any bank, trust company or national bank that has established a branch within a banking development district shall offer affordable products and services, including financial education services, tailored to the banking needs of the community in which the branch is located.
- § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
