(k) "Furlough order" means an order directing the commissioner to allow a defendant in confinement pursuant to a commitment order, recommitment order or retention order to temporarily leave the facility for a period not exceeding fourteen days, ~~[either]~~ with ~~[or without]~~ the constant supervision of one or more employees of the facility.

(s) "Psychiatric examiner" means a qualified psychiatrist or a licensed psychologist who has been designated by the commissioner to examine a defendant pursuant to this section, and such designee need not be an employee of the department of mental hygiene.

2. ~~[Examination]~~ Sentence; examination order; psychiatric examiners. Upon entry of a verdict of not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect, or upon the acceptance of a plea of not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect, the court must immediately (a) impose a period of confinement in the custody of the commissioner which is equal to the sentence of imprisonment such defendant would have received pursuant to article seventy of the penal law, upon conviction of the crime with which he or she was charged; and (b) issue an examination order. Upon receipt of such order, the commissioner must designate two qualified psychiatric examiners to conduct the examination to examine the defendant. In conducting their examination, the psychiatric examiners may employ any method which is accepted by the medical profession for the examination of persons alleged to be suffering from a dangerous mental disorder or to be mentally ill or retarded. The court may authorize a psychiatrist or psychologist retained by a defendant to be present at such examination. The clerk of the court must promptly forward a copy of the examination order to the mental hygiene legal service and such service may thereafter participate in all subsequent proceedings under this section.

In all subsequent proceedings under this section, ~~[prior to the issuance of a special order of conditions]~~ the court shall consider whether any order of protection had been issued prior to a verdict of not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect in the case, or prior to the acceptance of a plea of not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect in the case.

1 2-a. Firearm, rifle or shotgun surrender order. Upon entry of a 2 verdict of not responsible by reason of mental disease or defect, or 3 upon the acceptance of a plea of not responsible by reason of mental 4 disease or defect, or upon a finding that the defendant is an incapacitated 5 person pursuant to article seven hundred thirty of this chapter, 6 the court shall revoke the defendant's firearm license, if any, inquire 7 of the defendant as to the existence and location of any firearm, rifle 8 or shotgun owned or possessed by such defendant and direct the surrender 9 of such firearm, rifle or shotgun pursuant to subparagraph (f) of paragraph 10 one of subdivision a of section 265.20 and subdivision six of 11 section 400.05 of the penal law.

12 3. Examination order; place of examination. Upon issuing an examination 13 order, the court must, except as otherwise provided in this subdivision, 14 direct that the defendant be committed to a secure facility 15 designated by the commissioner as the place for such psychiatric examination.
16 The sheriff must hold the defendant in custody pending such designation 17 by the commissioner, and when notified of the designation, the sheriff 18 must promptly deliver the defendant to such secure facility.
19 ~~[When the defendant is not in custody at the time of such verdict or~~ 20 ~~plea, because he was previously released on bail or on his own recogni-~~ 21 ~~zance, the court, in its discretion, may direct that such examination be~~ 22 ~~conducted on an out-patient basis, and at such time and place as the~~ 23 ~~commissioner shall designate. If, however, the commissioner informs the~~ 24 ~~court that confinement of the defendant is necessary for an effective~~ 25 ~~examination, the court must direct that the defendant be confined in a~~ 26 ~~facility designated by the commissioner until the examination is~~ 27 ~~completed.]~~

28 4. Examination order, duration. Confinement in a secure facility 29 pursuant to an examination order shall be for a period not exceeding 30 thirty days, except that, upon application of the commissioner, the 31 court may authorize confinement for an additional period not exceeding 32 thirty days when a longer period is necessary to complete the examination.
33 ~~[If the initial hearing required by subdivision six of this~~ 34 ~~section has not commenced prior to the termination of such examination~~ 35 ~~period, the commissioner shall retain custody of the defendant in such~~ 36 ~~secure facility until custody is transferred to the sheriff in the~~ 37 ~~manner prescribed in subdivision six of this section.]~~ During the period 38 of such confinement, the physician in charge of the facility may administer 39 or cause to be administered to the defendant such emergency psychiatric, 40 medical or other therapeutic treatment as in his or her 41 judgment should be administered. ~~[If the court has directed that the~~ 42 ~~examination be conducted on an out-patient basis, the examination shall~~ 43 ~~be completed within thirty days after the defendant has first reported~~ 44 ~~to the place designated by the commissioner, except that, upon applica-~~ 45 ~~tion of the commissioner, the court may extend such period for a reason-~~ 46 ~~able time if a longer period is necessary to complete the examination.]~~

47 5. Examination order; reports. After he or she has completed his or 48 her examination of the defendant, each psychiatric examiner must promptly 49 prepare a report of his or her findings and evaluation concerning the 50 defendant's mental condition, and submit such report to the commissioner.
51 If the psychiatric examiners differ in their opinion as to whether 52 the defendant is mentally ill or is suffering from a dangerous mental 53 disorder, the commissioner must designate another psychiatric examiner 54 to examine the defendant. Upon receipt of the examination reports, the 55 commissioner must submit them to the court that issued the examination 56 order. If the court is not satisfied with the findings of these psychi-

1 atric examiners, the court may designate one or more additional psychi-2 atric examiners pursuant to subdivision ~~[fifteen]~~ fourteen of this 3 section. ~~[The court must furnish a copy of the reports to the district~~ 4 ~~attorney, counsel for the defendant and the mental hygiene legal~~ 5 ~~service.]~~

6 6. ~~[Initial hearing, commitment]~~ Commitment order. After the examina-7 tion reports are submitted, the court must~~[, within ten days of the~~ 8 ~~receipt of such reports, conduct an initial hearing to determine the~~ 9 ~~defendant's present mental condition. If the defendant is in the custody~~ 10 ~~of the commissioner pursuant to an examination order, the court must~~ 11 ~~direct the sheriff to obtain custody of the defendant from the commis-~~ 12 ~~sioner and to confine the defendant pending further order of the court,~~ 13 ~~except that the court may direct the sheriff to confine the defendant in~~ 14 ~~an institution located near the place where the court sits if that~~ 15 ~~institution has been designated by the commissioner as suitable for the~~ 16 ~~temporary and secure detention of mentally disabled persons. At such~~ 17 ~~initial hearing, the district attorney must establish to the satisfac-~~ 18 ~~tion of the court that the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder or~~ 19 ~~is mentally ill. If the court finds that the defendant has a dangerous~~ 20 ~~mental disorder, it must]~~ issue a commitment order for the term of the 21 period of confinement imposed, pursuant to paragraph (a) of subdivision 22 two of this section, and to such a secure facility as shall be suitable 23 for a mentally ill person or a person with a dangerous mental disorder, 24 as the case may be, based upon the examination reports. ~~[If the court~~ 25 ~~finds that the defendant does not have a dangerous mental disorder but~~ 26 ~~is mentally ill, the provisions of subdivision seven of this section~~ 27 ~~shall apply.]~~

28 7. ~~[Initial hearing civil commitment and order of conditions. If, at~~ 29 ~~the conclusion of the initial hearing conducted pursuant to subdivision~~ 30 ~~six of this section, the court finds that the defendant is mentally ill~~ 31 ~~but does not have a dangerous mental disorder, the provisions of arti-~~ 32 ~~cles nine or fifteen of the mental hygiene law shall apply at that stage~~ 33 ~~of the proceedings and at all subsequent proceedings. Having found that~~ 34 ~~the defendant is mentally ill, the court must issue an order of condi-~~ 35 ~~tions and an order committing the defendant to the custody of the~~ 36 ~~commissioner. The latter order shall be deemed an order made pursuant to~~ 37 ~~the mental hygiene law and not pursuant to this section, and further~~ 38 ~~retention, conditional release or discharge of such defendant shall be~~ 39 ~~in accordance with the provisions of the mental hygiene law. If, at the~~ 40 ~~conclusion of the initial hearing, the court finds that the defendant~~ 41 ~~does not have a dangerous mental disorder and is not mentally ill, the~~ 42 ~~court must discharge the defendant either unconditionally or subject to~~ 43 ~~an order of conditions.~~

44 ~~7-a. Whenever the court issues a special order of conditions pursuant~~ 45 ~~to this section, the commissioner shall make reasonable efforts to noti-~~ 46 ~~fy the victim or victims or the designated witness or witnesses that a~~ 47 ~~special order of conditions containing such provisions has been issued,~~ 48 ~~unless such victim or witness has requested that such notice should not~~ 49 ~~be provided.~~

50 ~~8-]~~ First retention order. When a defendant is in the custody of the 51 commissioner pursuant to a commitment order, the commissioner must, at 52 least thirty days prior to the expiration of the period prescribed in 53 the order, apply to the court that issued the order, or to a superior 54 court in the county where the secure facility is located, for a first 55 retention order or a release order. The commissioner must give written 56 notice of the application to the district attorney, the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the mental hygiene legal service. Upon receipt of such application, the court may, on its own motion, conduct a hearing to determine whether the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder, and it must conduct such hearing if a demand therefor is made by the district attorney, the defendant, counsel for the defendant, or the mental hygiene legal service within ten days from the date that notice of the application was given to them. If such a hearing is held on an application for retention, the commissioner must establish to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder or is mentally ill. The district attorney shall be entitled to appear and present evidence at such hearing. If such a hearing is held on an application for release, the district attorney must establish to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder or is mentally ill. If the court finds that the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder it must issue a first retention order. If the court finds that the defendant is mentally ill but does not have a dangerous mental disorder, it must issue a first retention order and, pursuant to subdivision [~~eleven~~] ten of this section, a transfer order and an order of conditions. If the court finds that the defendant does not have a dangerous mental disorder and is not mentally ill, it must issue a release order and an order of conditions pursuant to subdivision [~~twelve~~] eleven of this section.

[~~9-~~] 8. Second and subsequent retention orders. When a defendant is in the custody of the commissioner pursuant to a first retention order, the commissioner must, at least thirty days prior to the expiration of the period prescribed in the order, apply to the court that issued the order, or to a superior court in the county where the facility is located, for a second retention order or a release order. The commissioner must give written notice of the application to the district attorney, the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the mental hygiene legal service. Upon receipt of such application, the court may, on its own motion, conduct a hearing to determine whether the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder, and it must conduct such hearing if a demand therefor is made by the district attorney, the defendant, counsel for the defendant, or the mental hygiene legal service within ten days from the date that notice of the application was given to them. If such a hearing is held on an application for retention, the commissioner must establish to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder or is mentally ill. The district attorney shall be entitled to appear and present evidence at such hearing. If such a hearing is held on an application for release, the district attorney must establish to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder or is mentally ill. If the court finds that the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder it must issue a second retention order. If the court finds that the defendant is mentally ill but does not have a dangerous mental disorder, it must issue a second retention order and, pursuant to subdivision [~~eleven~~] ten of this section, a transfer order and an order of conditions. If the court finds that the defendant does not have a dangerous mental disorder and is not mentally ill, it must issue a release order and an order of conditions pursuant to subdivision [~~twelve~~] eleven of this section. When a defendant is in the custody of the commissioner prior to the expiration of the period prescribed in a second retention order, the procedures set forth in this subdivision for the issuance of a second retention order shall govern the application for and the issuance of any subsequent retention order.

1     ~~[10-]~~ 9. Furlough order. The commissioner may apply for a furlough 2 order, pursuant to this subdivision, when a defendant is in his or her 3 custody pursuant to a ~~[commitment order,]~~ recommitment order~~[,]~~ or 4 retention order and the commissioner is of the view that, consistent 5 with the public safety and welfare of the community and the defendant, 6 the clinical condition of the defendant warrants a granting of the priv-7 ileges authorized by a furlough order. The application for a furlough 8 order may be made to the court that issued the commitment order, or to a 9 superior court in the county where the secure facility is located. The 10 commissioner must give ten days written notice to the district attorney, 11 the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the mental hygiene legal 12 service. Upon receipt of such application, the court may, on its own 13 motion, conduct a hearing to determine whether the application should be 14 granted, and must conduct such hearing if a demand therefor is made by 15 the district attorney. If the court finds that the issuance of a 16 furlough order is consistent with the public safety and welfare of the 17 community and the defendant, and that the clinical condition of the 18 defendant warrants a granting of the privileges authorized by a furlough 19 order, the court must grant the application and issue a furlough order 20 containing any terms and conditions that the court deems necessary or 21 appropriate. If the defendant fails to return to the secure facility at 22 the time specified in the furlough order, then, for purposes of subdivi-23 sion ~~[nineteen]~~ eighteen of this section, he or she shall be deemed to 24 have escaped.

25     ~~[11-]~~ 10. Transfer order and order of conditions. The commissioner may 26 apply for a transfer order, pursuant to this subdivision, when a defend-27 ant is in his or her custody pursuant to a retention order or a recom-28 mitment order, and the commissioner is of the view that the defendant 29 does not have a dangerous mental disorder or that, consistent with the 30 public safety and welfare of the community and the defendant, the clin-31 ical condition of the defendant warrants his or her transfer from a 32 secure facility to a non-secure facility under the jurisdiction of the 33 commissioner or to any non-secure facility designated by the commission-34 er. The application for a transfer order may be made to the court that 35 issued the order under which the defendant is then in custody, or to a 36 superior court in the county where the secure facility is located. The 37 commissioner must give ten days written notice to the district attorney, 38 the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the mental hygiene legal 39 service. Upon receipt of such application, the court may, on its own 40 motion, conduct a hearing to determine whether the application should be 41 granted, and must conduct such hearing if the demand therefor is made by 42 the district attorney. At such hearing, the district attorney must 43 establish to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has a 44 dangerous mental disorder or that the issuance of a transfer order is 45 inconsistent with the public safety and welfare of the community. The 46 court must grant the application and issue a transfer order if the court 47 finds that the defendant does not have a dangerous mental disorder, or 48 if the court finds that the issuance of a transfer order is consistent 49 with the public safety and welfare of the community and the defendant 50 and that the clinical condition of the defendant, warrants his or her 51 transfer from a secure facility to a non-secure facility. A court must 52 also issue a transfer order when, in connection with an application for 53 a first retention order pursuant to subdivision ~~[eight]~~ seven of this 54 section or a second or subsequent retention order pursuant to subdivi-55 sion ~~[nine]~~ eight of this section, it finds that a defendant is mentally

1 ill but does not have a dangerous mental disorder. Whenever a court 2 issues a transfer order it must also issue an order of conditions.

3 ~~[12.]~~ 11. Release order and order of conditions. The commissioner may 4 apply for a release order, pursuant to this subdivision, when a defend-5 ant is in his or her custody pursuant to a retention order or recommit-6 ment order, and the commissioner is of the view that the defendant no 7 longer has a dangerous mental disorder and is no longer mentally ill.
8 The application for a release order may be made to the court that issued 9 the order under which the defendant is then in custody, or to a superior 10 court in the county where the facility is located. The application must 11 contain a description of the defendant's current mental condition, the 12 past course of treatment, a history of the defendant's conduct subse-13 quent to his or her commitment, a written service plan for continued 14 treatment which shall include the information specified in subdivision 15 (g) of section 29.15 of the mental hygiene law, and a detailed statement 16 of the extent to which supervision of the defendant after release is 17 proposed. The commissioner must give ten days written notice to the 18 district attorney, the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the 19 mental hygiene legal service. Upon receipt of such application, the 20 court must promptly conduct a hearing to determine the defendant's pres-21 ent mental condition. At such hearing, the district attorney must 22 establish to the satisfaction of the court that the defendant has a 23 dangerous mental disorder or is mentally ill. If the court finds that 24 the defendant has a dangerous mental disorder, it must deny the applica-25 tion for a release order. If the court finds that the defendant does not 26 have a dangerous mental disorder but is mentally ill, it must issue a 27 transfer order pursuant to subdivision ~~[eleven]~~ ten of this section if 28 the defendant is then confined in a secure facility. If the court finds 29 that the defendant does not have a dangerous mental disorder and is not 30 mentally ill, it must grant the application and issue a release order. A 31 court must also issue a release order when, in connection with an appli-32 cation for a first retention order pursuant to subdivision ~~[eight]~~ seven 33 of this section or a second or subsequent retention order pursuant to 34 subdivision ~~[nine]~~ eight of this section, it finds that the defendant 35 does not have a dangerous mental disorder and is not mentally ill. When-36 ever a court issues a release order it must also issue an order of 37 conditions. If the court has previously issued a transfer order and an 38 order of conditions, it must issue a new order of conditions upon issu-39 ing a release order. The order of conditions issued in conjunction with 40 a release order shall incorporate a written service plan prepared by a 41 psychiatrist familiar with the defendant's case history and approved by 42 the court, and shall contain any conditions that the court determines to 43 be reasonably necessary or appropriate. It shall be the responsibility 44 of the commissioner to determine that such defendant is receiving the 45 services specified in the written service plan and is complying with any 46 conditions specified in such plan and the order of conditions.

47 ~~[13.]~~ 12. Discharge order. The commissioner may apply for a discharge 48 order, pursuant to this subdivision, when a defendant has been contin-49 uously on an out-patient status for three years or more pursuant to a 50 release order, and the commissioner is of the view that the defendant no 51 longer has a dangerous mental disorder and is no longer mentally ill and 52 that the issuance of a discharge order is consistent with the public 53 safety and welfare of the community and the defendant. The application 54 for a discharge order may be made to the court that issued the release 55 order, or to a superior court in the county where the defendant is then 56 residing. The commissioner must give ten days written notice to the

1 district attorney, the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the 2 mental hygiene legal service. Upon receipt of such application, the 3 court may, on its own motion, conduct a hearing to determine whether the 4 application should be granted, and must conduct such hearing if a demand 5 therefor is made by the district attorney. The court must grant the 6 application and issue a discharge order if the court finds that the 7 defendant has been continuously on an out-patient status for three years 8 or more, that he or she does not have a dangerous mental disorder and is 9 not mentally ill, and that the issuance of the discharge order is 10 consistent with the public safety and welfare of the community and the 11 defendant.

12 ~~[14]~~ 13. Recombitment order. At any time during the period covered by 13 an order of conditions an application may be made by the commissioner or 14 the district attorney to the court that issued such order, or to a supe-15 rior court in the county where the defendant is then residing, for a 16 recommitment order when the applicant is of the view that the defendant 17 has a dangerous mental disorder. The applicant must give written notice 18 of the application to the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the 19 mental hygiene legal service, and if the applicant is the commissioner 20 he or she must give such notice to the district attorney or if the 21 applicant is the district attorney he or she must give such notice to 22 the commissioner. Upon receipt of such application the court must order 23 the defendant to appear before it for a hearing to determine if the 24 defendant has a dangerous mental disorder. Such order may be in the form 25 of a written notice, specifying the time and place of appearance, served 26 personally upon the defendant, or mailed to his or her last known 27 address, as the court may direct. If the defendant fails to appear in 28 court as directed, the court ~~[may]~~ shall issue a warrant to an appropri-29 ate peace officer directing him or her to take the defendant into custo-30 dy and bring him or her before the court. In such circumstance, the 31 court ~~[may]~~ shall direct that the defendant be confined in an appropri-32 ate institution located near the place where the court sits. The court 33 must conduct a hearing to determine whether the defendant has a danger-
