26 § 5. Subdivision 1 of section 170.56 of the criminal procedure law, as

28 follows:

29 1. Upon or after arraignment in a local criminal court upon an infor-

31 sole remaining count or counts charge a violation or violations of 32 section 221.05, 221.10, 221.15, 221.35 or 221.40 of the penal law and 33 before the entry of a plea of guilty thereto or commencement of a trial 34 thereof, the court, upon motion of a defendant, may order that all 35 proceedings be suspended and the action adjourned in contemplation of 36 dismissal, or upon a finding that adjournment would not be necessary or 37 appropriate and the setting forth in the record of the reasons for such 38 findings, may dismiss in furtherance of justice the accusatory instru-

50 the court may order that all proceedings be suspended and the action
51 adjourned in contemplation of dismissal based upon a finding of excep-

53 circumstances exist when, regardless of the ultimate disposition of the

55 teral consequences, including, but not limited to, those that could 56 leave a noncitizen inadmissible or deportable from the United States.

§ 6. Paragraphs (h) and (i) of subdivision 1 of section 440.10 of the criminal procedure law, paragraph (h) as amended by chapter 332 of the laws of 2010 and paragraph (i) as amended by chapter 368 of the laws of 2015, are amended and a new paragraph (j) is added to read as follows:

(ii) official documentation of the defendant's status as a victim of trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons at the time of the offense from a federal, state or local government agency shall create a presumption that the defendant's participation in the offense was a result of having been a victim of sex trafficking, compelling prostitution or trafficking in persons, but shall not be required for granting a motion under this paragraph~~[-]~~; or

(j) The judgment occurred prior to the effective date of this paragraph and is a conviction for an offense as defined by section 221.10 of the penal law (criminal possession of marihuana in the fifth degree), as in effect prior to the effective date of this paragraph, provided that the accusatory instrument that underlies the judgment does not include an allegation that the defendant possessed more than twenty-five grams of marihuana.

1 upon receipt thereof, shall comply with the provisions of paragraphs
2 (a), (b), (c) and (d) of subdivision one of this section in the same
3 manner as is required thereunder with respect to an order of a court 4 entered pursuant to said subdivision one[~~+~~]; or

5 (j) following the arrest of such person, the arresting police agency, 6 prior to the filing of an accusatory instrument in a local criminal

22 § 9. The legislative law is amended by adding a new section 52-a to 23 read as follows:

24 § 52-a. Requirement with respect to bills increasing correctional 25 populations. 1. Whenever a committee reports a bill favorably which, if 26 passed, would increase or decrease the pretrial or sentenced population 27 of correctional facilities in this state, a majority of the committee 28 members voting may request that a racial and ethnic impact statement be 29 prepared. Each house of the legislature shall separately prescribe rules 30 requiring racial and ethnic impact statements to accompany, on a sepa-

32 reported from committee. Racial and ethnic impact statements shall be 33 prepared before the bill is considered for final passage. The statement 34 shall indicate whether the bill would have a disparate impact on the 35 racial and ethnic composition of the correctional facility population
36 and an explanation of that impact. Any racial and ethnic impact state-37 ment printed with or prepared for a bill is solely for the purpose of 38 information, summarization and explanation for members of the legisla-
39 ture and shall not be construed to represent the intent of the legisla-
40 ture or either chamber thereof for any purpose. Each racial and ethnic 41 impact statement shall bear the following disclaimer: "The following 42 racial and ethnic impact statement is prepared for the benefit of the 43 members of the legislature, solely for purposes of information, summa-44 rization and explanation and does not represent the intent of the legis-45 lature or either chamber thereof for any purpose."

46 2. Racial and ethnic impact statements shall be made available to the 47 public in the same manner that the text of bills are made available to 48 the public.

49 § 10. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 50 have become a law.
