AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a tax credit for developers utilizing renewable energy sources in affordable housing units

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- 1 Section 1. The tax law is amended by adding a new section 43 to read 2 as follows:
- § 43. Credit for utilizing renewable energy sources. (a) General. A taxpayer subject to tax under article nine-A or twenty-two of this chapter, who is a developer who uses renewable sources of energy, as such term is defined in subdivision twelve of section 1-103 of the energy law, during the construction of an affordable housing facility, shall be allowed a credit against such taxes in an amount of two thousand dollars per qualified unit and pursuant to the provisions referenced in subdivi-
- 10 sion (c) of this section.
- 11 (b) Definitions. (1) "Affordable housing facility" shall mean a build-12 ing containing ten or more units, ninety percent of which are qualified 13 units.
- 14 (2) "Qualified unit" shall mean any unit within an affordable housing 15 facility that uses renewable sources of energy and is occupied by one or 16 more people whose total income is less than one hundred percent of the 17 area median income.
- 18 (c) Cross-references. For application of the credit provided for in 19 this section, see the following provisions of this chapter:
- 20 (1) Article 9-A: Section 210-B, subdivision 49.

49. Credit for utilizing renewable energy sources. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in section forty-three of 3 this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article. In no event shall the credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduce the tax due for such year to less than the amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this article. However, if the amount of credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount, any amount of credit thus not deductible in such taxable year shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of 11 section one thousand eighty-six of this chapter. Provided, however, the provisions of subsection (c) of section one thousand eighty-eight of 12 this chapter notwithstanding, no interest shall be paid thereon.

§ 3. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection (ccc) to read as follows:

(ccc) Credit for utilizing renewable energy sources. A taxpayer shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided for in section fortythree of this chapter, against the tax imposed by this article. If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year shall exceed the taxpayer's tax for such year, the excess shall be treated as an overpayment of tax to be credited or refunded in accordance with the provisions of section six hundred eighty-six of this article, provided, however, that no interest shall be paid thereon.

§ 4. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606 24 25 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xliii) to read as 26 follows:

(xliii) Credit for utilizing renewable energy sources under subsection (ccc)

Amount of credit under subdivision forty-nine of section two hundred ten-B

§ 5. This act shall take effect immediately.
